Another perfect oricketing day was in store with visiting cricketers, and at 11.50 they rayed themselves in the field like an oppos-g bast against the Ontario men. The home en had to follow stheir innings, and sent in felters and F.G. B. Allan to the bowling of otherham and Roller. Vickers received ollers first over from the upper end, and en Rotherham chucked one up on Allan, d he placed it neally to leg for three. A figle and two byes resulted from the act over. It was Rotherham's turn, and his last hall he got Vickers, who tried knock him out of the field. 1 for 7. milton was associated with Allan. Three persive maideus were sent down and then life changed to the south end.
