The York Debating Society

• encourages all those who are interested in enhancing their public speaking skills and in learning how to survive in the forum of parliamentary debate to come out and share their wisdom. Communication skills may be the difference between success and failure after you graduate. So come out, experienced or not, and learn how to make the walls of York reverberate your oratorical sublimity.

Weekly meetings are held on Monday in room 115 Winter's College from 4-7pm. For more info. call Royal at 333 Student Centre.

The world of humanity has two wings, one is women and the other men. Not until both wings are equally developed can the bird fly.

York University Outing Club

What's Happening: We're in the middle of a great ski season! Our Quebec trip was success. We have day trips every week. Banff, Vermont, and Quebec are on the agenda for reading week.

We're also busy planning some exciting spring events. How does white water canoeing and hiking sound? We welcome you to attend our next outing or meeting. Drop by the YOC office in 348 Bethune on Wednesdays between 3 & 8pm. Phil will fill you in on all the club details, or call Heidi 467-5560
