Preston - Starw

June 1958

Dear Arthur:-

Just a note to thank you for drawing down with Isabel yesterday for a very short visit with me here. I enjoyed your visit immensely. I was very sorry my absent-mindedness caused you so much embarrassment at the luncheon I had fifty odd dollars in my room at the Home and had every intention of taking it along in case of emergency but Isabel was just a few minutes earlier in arriving than I had really expected in fact.
I met her at the room door as I was leaving so she if I could see you approaching the Home & welcoming you and of course I completely forgot every thing about the extra money I intended taking along with me to lunch until I was seated at the table in the Cross Hotel.

The Globe & Mail had a dandy picture of you in its issue today - It is quite the best I've seen of you of late - you do not look so old as in some I have seen of you of late - Hope your birthday party was a real
