

P. 254,014-55 Ty.

Ottawa, July 30th., 1918.

Sir,

I beg to enclose herewith copy of a letter from Mrs. Peter Ginish which speaks for itself. If this woman is unable to work and has no person to assist her, you should continue her relief, but if she is in good health there would seem to be no reason why she could not sustain herself during the summer months. Your report in this matter is requested.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

John B. Sheridan Esq.,
Indian Superintendent,
