

Introductory notes re Memorial Arch, Niagara Falls:

Thanks for invitation - to participate in ceremonies marking hundredth anniversary of historic events of 1837-38 -

to Parks Commission,

to Ontario Government, under whose authority Parks Commission carries

on its all-important work;

Unveiling and dedication of Arch, together with official opening, this morning, of Mackenzie House, makes the day a most interesting and memorable one;

Appreciation of kind words of Chairman (Mr.

McQuesten) and Mr. Houck, in his introduction.

Appreciation of work of Parks Commission:

Nowhere has a public body shown more foresight or genuine concern for public welfare and happiness than Parks Commission, under Chairmanship of Hon. T.B. McQuesten, and his ^{predecessors,} ~~predecessors,~~ in seeking, with so much success, to preserve natural beauties and historical associations of Niagara District;
