

HERMAN MOLL'S ATLAS. The World described, OF A NEW AND CORRECT SET OF MAPS shewing the several EMPIRES, KINGDOMS, REPUBLICS, PRINCIPALITIES, etc., in all the known parts of the earth, wherein the errors of the ancient geographers are corrected according to the latest observations of travellers, as communicated to the Royal Society of London, and the Royal Academy of Paris. EACH MAP IS ENGRAVED ON COPPER BY HERMAN MOLL, geographer, and printed on two sheets of elephant paper, whereby the scale being large admits of showing the cities and chief towns in the most distinct manner. To render these maps the more acceptable several of them are ornamented with remarkable prospects, plans, etc. This rare and picturesque old volume with its thirty large and very fine old maps, including the hemispheres and six others of which relate to the new world (coloured), contains many curious old engravings, engraved titles, portraits, coats of arms, etc., and abounds with letterpress descriptions, which combine to make this scarce old atlas a most desirable acquisition (A MAP of the NORTH POLE by HERMAN MOLL, the PERPETUAL ALMANACK, etc, inserted.) Tall folio, old calf binding, adorned with brass clasps and is in fine condition, $25.50, Sold by JOHN BOWES, print and map seller, at the Black Horse in Cornhill, 1708-1720. 5
