Clydesdales! Clydesdales! Spring Hill Top Notchers

Gentlemen, we wish to remind you that owing to our late importations we won't be showing at any of the fall exhibitions. Our lot comprises fillies and mares, stallions, 3 and 4 years old. They are the ripe cherries every one of them, and must be sold at the lowest possible price to make room for this fall importation. There's no man who ever buys a stallion or mare but who comes back again; why, because we have the goods and back up what we say. We wish to thank every one for their kind patronage in the past. Yours truly,

J. & J. SEMPLE, Milverton, Ont., and La Verne, Minn., U. S. A.

The Patteran.

[The "patteran" or "patrin" is a branch laid by a gypsy along the road to indicate to any of his tribe who may follow, the way he has taken.]

You set the patteran for me
Along the world you wandered through,
Lest mazed and weary I might be
And miss the way that led to you.

How oft at open doors a glow
Have I delayed my roving feet,
And welcomed, "Shall I further go?"
For just a hungry heart's quick beat,

When on the threshold I have seen
Your woodland signal where it lay
With onward-pointing finger green
To warn me that I might not stay.

The gypsy knew the gypsy's call;
It led my wayward feet aright,
Together as the shadows fall,
We kneel our roadside fire to light.

The fire we kindle, hand to hand,
Shall cheer the way for weary men
Till our Great Chieftain give command
"Break camp and take the road again."

Then, Love, whoever goes before,
If it be you, if it be I,
Shall set the patteran once more
Across the spaces of the sky.

—Amelia Josephine Burr, in Putnam's Magazine.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS. Miscellaneous.

LOOSE OBSERVANCE OF DRAIN- AGE AWARD.

A brought on the County Engineer, who made an award for an open ditch, excepting A, affecting about a dozen owners, also the Municipal Council (a municipal drain). B, the owner of two lots "down stream" from A, obtained permission, orally, from the Engineer, to lay tile in his portion, provided those up stream were willing. B obtained permission from A and the heirs of C, whose lot lies between A and B (C having died in meantime). The other parties above were not consulted. A also laid tile per the award, C's heirs also laid tile joining A's and B's at their own expense, B also bearing his expenses. C's farm was subsequently sold to D. B's tiles proved unsatisfactory by filling up, and probably also D's. B then obtained permission from Engineer to lay another row of tiles beside the others, which most of the parties concerned think will prove just as unsatisfactory as the first row.

1. Can B lay these tile without consent of owners above him (up stream)?
2. Can he make them share in the expense?

3. Can they compel him to take up these tile and maintain the open ditch as per the award?

4. What action should parties concerned take, as B threatens to make them bear expense of these extra tile? B, according to witnesses, assumed all responsibility of first tiles working.
Ontario.

Ans.—1 and 2. We do not see that he is in a position legally to do so.

3. We should think so.

4. They should arrange to have the award enforced—employing a solicitor if necessary.
