DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT WINDSOR .- Our read is lar and wide will be grieved to learn that he extensive and flourshing manu actory belonging to the Messrs Curry, just at the entrance Windsor, was totally consumed by fire on Thursday night last. The origin of the fire is nor known with certainly, but it is supposed to have been caused by some sparks from the engine, although a careful examination of the entire premises, as was aiways customary, was made at So'clock in the evening. The loss of property is estimated at between three and four thousand pounds-eight hundred only of which was cover ed by insurance. The event may almost be regarded as a postic calamity. The enterprising mechanics by whom it was owned, had brought into use machinery of the most improved con-struction for carrying on their extensive works, -they had commenced the manufacture of
