inst cords too next to be reft. This truth of mournful experience should be treasured by all, and should influence the arrangements and babits of social and domestic life in every class of community.—Dr. Channing.

Obituary Rotices.

As

O I On Chi The East An H An H

Kn Ma Log And Soft

" I For And O k

Ble

An

God

The

Yet,

Goć Hav Litt And Eve Hel

voit hav wer

the

she

 $\mathbf{ply}$

the

the

in tra

Ic

the

con whe

a li

the

up

him

a m doi

age

and to f

for

The

bus

ma

tok wo

De

wh

He

ang

MEMORIALS OF THE LATE BEY. W. C. M'EINNON,

Furnished to the writer chiefly by the aged, afflicted, and pious father had attained his sixth year he manifested an in- glorious work. I look before me and see a visiting the sister Conference of the Wesleyan the English and French authorities; but the fortense thirst for knowledge. Books, rather than the frivolous sports of youth, seemed most con-dawn, I shall endure the intervening night of taught in a country school house. But this is hold my King, I shall adore my God, I shall suffering, from the active duties of the Christian glory all to themselves. taught in a country school house. But this is nota my hing, I shall adore my God, I shall supering, from the active dutes of the outstand gives all to themselves. generally sufficient to turnish a key which will serve my dear interingence many open to the persevering student all the treasures ever earthly ties existed, are now severed, if not ourselves, for more reasons than one, it was a of the last fortnight. At home, subjects of in- work. correspond in one of the classic languages with tifying grace for the great work."

Divinity, engrossed so great a share of his atten-tion as Geology. His attainments in this de-partment of human research were very very very state of his Savieur and Lord His burning assembled together not less than two hundred partment of human research were very respect- the cause of his Saviour and Lord. His burning assembled together-not less than two hundred statuary and bright shrubs and flowering plants bury presided, and interesting addresses were able indeed, as was manifested by various arti-love to souls often caused him, to disregard the and fifty being present-filling the whole body have been interspersed; and the general opinion delivered by several ministers and gentlemen,

Possessing a very retentive memory, he trea- dictates of the willing spirit, could he be induced but a small town, this large number was accom- equal to that of 1851. The attendance is gra- minianism. sured up in his mind a large amount of know- to refrain from laborious toil. His ministerial modated with comparative case, and with great dually on the increase, though very much below The Celebrated Dr. Warren, whose name will ledge on a variety of subjects, which in after life career, from beginning to end, was a beautiful comfort to the brethren. We ourselves, and our the corresponding periods of 1851. The sum always live, in the annals of Methodism, in asillustration of the apostle's declaration, respect- excellent brother and co-representative, the Rev. taken at the doors during the last week was sociation with the great secession of 1835, died was sanctified for the Great Master's use. In May, 1846, he removed to the town of ing himself and colleagues. "For the love of John Allison and his family, had most comfort-£8,577, as against £22,189, in the correspond- in Manchester, on Friday last, at the age of 82. Sydney, and commenced publishing a paper, the Christ constraineth us," &c. And yet, an un-only one at that time in Cape Breton. From known writer in the St. John Globe, in noticing respectively -of B. Flint and D. Bogart, Esqrs., the week intervening between May 18th and tury, a clergyman of the Established Church,this period his worldly sorrows commenced.- the death of Bro. McKinnon, not only insinuates, whose kindness and hospitality will not soon be 25th, were five shilling days; whereas five of the but his influence has always been very limited.

Without any experience of the world, and but that he took upon himself the office of the minis- forgotten. little acquainted with human nature, he soon try merely to obtain a livelihood, but states We purposely abstain from further reference little acquainted with human nature, is soon try merely to obtain a livelihood, but states forgot the counsels of a pious father, and the positively, that the work was not congenial to to the business of the Conference, as such inforimportant caution suggested in that off-forgot-ten declaration of the Book of Truth, "Evil I hope the writer of that article called, "a legated us to this duty, but we must record that of the silver taken at the doors is more than four owt. The percentage of bad money is exceedcommunications corrupt good manners." He brother typo," will be more cautious in future, from the honoured President Dr. Wood-the became quite disloyal, and expressed in his pa- in his remarks respecting others,-and if he ever Co-Delegate Mr. Musgrove, and all the brethren, per such strong republican sentiments, that his expects to enjoy the society of Bro. McKinnon official and otherwise, we received the most affriends withdrew their aid, and the enterprise fail- again, - be must repent of the sin he has already fectionate and respectful consideration; in reed. Determined to see the only land of true liber-committed, viz:-Bearing false witness against turn, they assuredly have our earnest prayers is the true to the set of the section of th ty, as he thought, where men may say and print his neighbour. I would advise him to ponder for their continued enlargement and abundant uve merits of the exhibitors in the various classes gives an account of the arrival in Sydney of the what they please, he visited Boston in 1851. deeply the solemn truth contained in the 27th success where he was engaged for some time in writing verse of the 21st chapter of Revelation.

for some of the leading Magazines ; but, in consequence of ill health, returned home.

success in a pecuniary point of view. But now little dreame that the glass which animates con-versation, will sink him too low for the inter-course in which he now delights. Intemperance trer comes with noiseless steps and binds the first cords too light to be felt. This truth of bighter." An account of his last illness and bighter."

mation belongs primarily to the body which de-

We do not present our late Brother before the world, as faultless. He was human—encom-the Rev. Wm. Arthur, A. M., for two reasons. the building by authority of the Commissioners. Gordon and Mrs. Gordon, in Erromanga, some Previous to this he had written several tales passed with infirmity, but the Grace of God ap- It will be an acknowledgement of the receipt The author of this manual has not scrupled to say months ago :-and legends of Cape Breton, but without much peared so conspicuous, as almost wholly to con- of his donation to the New Chapel at Paris, what he thinks about the various works of art "The natives of Erromanga, finding that they ceal from human sight, the defects of humanity. to the friend who contributed "the brick;" exhibited. The artists whom he has not flatter could murder missionaries with impunity, went the seemed determined to make one more effort as a novelist, and accordingly wrote "St. George: eminently qualifying him for the reciprocities of the seemed determined to make one more effort as a novelist, and accordingly wrote "St. George: eminently qualifying him for the reciprocities of the data in Nova Scotia who may be disor the Canadian League ;" the last fictitious work an exalted friendship. In all the relations of posed to aid so good a cause. We are happy to commissioners to sanction the sale of art critiques was taken up and the deed resolved upon. The house in Paris.

Yours affectionately.

Letter from England.

REV. CHARLES CHURCHILL.

ing fact that the young King of Portugal would 300,000 new-papers were posted last year, and

The Provincial Wesleyan.

"The ordination service took place on Wed- The Canada Conference of 1862.

A very interesting ceremony took place vesnesday evening, I engaged then in solemn ob- We claim an exemption from the duty of pre- must have revolted. ligation, to preach the gospel of the Kingdom, paring a formal editorial for our present issue The French have been left to themselves in terday, in connexion with the departure of a WILLIAM CHARLES MCKINNON, eldest son and to glorify God, ' by my body and my spirit, on the ground of our late return from a long the Mexican expedition, and are probably dicof John McKinnon, of North Sydney, C.B., which are his, until the end of my earthly career. was born on the 19th April, 1828. Before he genial to his ardent mind. Directed by parental tears, I am well content to do so. My Saviour of (we greatly fear) a last visit to our beloved ment on the Mexicans. Spain sympathizes with were crowded. Everything that could be done genia to nis argent mind. Directed by parental to do so. By Savidar of the great, teal, a latt on the steatcans. Spain sympathizes with were crowded. Everything that could be done love and wisdom, he read many good authors, bore the cross before he wore the crown, oh! friend and brother, the Rev. Dr. Stinson in To. England, and will give no sanction to the scheme to cheer the emigrants in the way of flags and especially the Holy Scriptures, which he daily shall I not bear every cross, if at last, when ronto, who is gradually sinking under the insid-of enthroning an Austrian Archduke among a brass bands was liberally done, and with many perused with more than usual attention. His this weary strife is ended, and the aching head ious progress of a fatal disease which for more people whose national choice is a Republic. a tearful eye and aching heart the thousand left education was limited to the usual branches is quiet, and the beating heart still, I shall be- than five months has laid him aside, in painful The French will, therefore, have this little bit of their native land for a distant home. It is to be hoped that the colony, inaugurated under so open to the persevering student all the treasures of the fast forthight. At home, subjects of in- work. of human wisdom and knowledge. And, truly, before, I can truly say, "Whom have I in heaven peculiarly affecting interview, solaced by the terest have not been wanting. The Internaor numan wisdom and knowledge. And, truly, before, and truly say, whom have I in neaven peculiarly allecting interver, solated by the terest have not been wanting. The Interna-in his case success crowned indefatigable efforts, but thee, and there is none upon earth that I de-thought that he would shortly enter into the rest tional Exhibition is of course among the most partly new memorial erected over the grave of for before he was 30 years of age he was able to sire beside thee. O my God qualify me by sanc- desired, and that there ere long, we, with loved prominent. It is now about complete ; and the John Bunyan, in Bunhill Fields Burial-ground, ones who have gone before, will by God's mercy, re surely meet again. took place last week. The length of the tomb ing cases, and the vision of courts tantalizingly is seven feet, and the height something over four.

correspond in one of the classic languages with a brother minister. But even before he was 16 years of age, while at home, he gave proof of to the daughter of a departed missionary, whose to the daughter of a departed missionary whose to the daughter of a d years or age, while at nome, he gave proof of widow still survives, (Mrs. Crane, of Pugwash.) ence, we found the first day taken up with a con-literary talent as an author, first in a descriptive widow still survives, (Mrs. Crane, of Pugwash.) ence, we found the first day taken up with a con-organs are in a state of forwardness, and some stone reclines on the top, with a book in his poem of the "Battle of the Nile," and afterward In her he found a help-meet, living happily toanother poetic essay, on "The Steep of Fame." gether, as " heirs of the grace of life," until he consequent absence of Dr. Stinson, the result at intervals during the day, give selections of the tomb exhibits in relief the picture of " Chris-About the same period, he almost completed a fell asleep in Jesus. Two children with the wi- of which was the election to the presidential music on the organ and piano, and the public tian " starting on his pilgrimage, --while on the work on Ornithology, which has not yet been dow, journey onward to meet him on the blest chair of another old and highly valued friend the have thus the opportunity of testing the mag- other he is represented as reaching the Cross Rev. Enoch Wood, D. D. The Rev. Wm. Scott nificent instruments which are exhibited by and losing his burden. The day being unfavourpublished. Astronomy, Navigation, and Com-position, at this time, were studied with much No man ever loved more ardently than our was elected Secretary of the Conference, and on almost every firm of eminence in England able, the open air ceremony was very brief. devotion; but, in after life, no science, except Dear Brother, the work of the ministry. His the second day the Conference proceeded to its and on the Continent. Some of the hideous Immediately after the uncovering of the tomb cles from his pen, some of which were written but a short time before his departure from earth. but a short time before his departure from earth.

days of last week were half-crown days. The Mr. Samuel Warren, Q.C. is his eldest son. of the silver taken at the doors is more than four aries to Calcutta, where we have now an opening.

ingly small. Large numbers of tickets have Expulsion of the London Missionbeen purchased by the Queen for distribution. ary Society's Agents from Several wealthy persons have followed Her Ma-The British Standard Sydney correspondent

The Juries who are to decide upon the relaare now sitting. Their's is not an enviable Rev. T. G. P. Paton, one of the society's agents. task. Already a great deal of ill-will has been with a terrible tale from Tanna. Our readers

Plan of Preaching Appointments of the E. B. A. Conference, HALIFAX, N. S., 1862.

				• •		••			•
PLACES.		TIME	19	20	22 8.	23	_	NE.		27	29 5.	30	1	• 2	JU 3	-	65
ick Street,		11		-	58	-	-	-	-	-	10						33
.4		3	-	-	39	-	-	-	-	-	L	-	-	-			54
		-7	-	-	3	-	-		-		14Cs	-	-			-
" Weak Night			-	-		-	-	-	_	-		-	-				31
week Migue,	ŝ,	74	29	-		41	-	м	44	-		0	_	47		16
" Morning,	_	6	_		52	24	36	_	37	30	28	25	13	20
Street,		11			34	_	_	_	_	_	2 C.			_	_	_	49
		7			55	1					17 C					1	9
" Week Night,		71	_	85	IJ		59		-	51		-	56		10		_
reet,		3	-	-	27	-		-	-	-	42	-	-	-	_		45
uth,	,	11	-		22	-	-	1-	-	-	46		14	-	-	-	57
· · ·		7	-	-	23	-	-	-	-	-	32	-	-	-	-	-	48
NAME OF MINISTER.			ACE	0	F AB	DDE					NAM	IE C	OF S	STR	EET	r.
Dr. Pickard, (a.)		H. 1				_			1 -	D.	unsw			-	_
DeWolfe, A.M., (b.) McMurray, (c.) Addy, Brewster, Churchill, A.M. Pope, McNutt,	M R.	iss H.	Blac Mu	k, rra	у,					Co Sp Go Ar Bi Lo	oring oring orting gyle rming ockma unsw	ll S Gar en l Stre har n S	tree der Stre et. n S tree	et. Reet. et.	et.
Stewart, Pope, Jr.	Re	ev. I	I. P	op					1	Bi	rming	har	n S	tree
Smallwood, Hennigar,	Hon. J. H. Anderson, Miss Jost,									Gottingen Street. Argyle Street.
Ryan,	Mrs. Valentine, M. H. Richey,									Duke Street. Brunswick Street.
Dr. Richey, Temple,		H. Ha								Dr		do.	Str	ee 1
Prince, Narraway, A. M.	G. R. Anderson, A. Morton,									do. Jacob Street.
G. Johnson,	J. B. Bennett,									Poplar Grove. Jacob Street.
Wilson, McKeown,	G. Gray, W. Blewitt,									Queen Street.
W. Smith, Richard Smith,	F. Johnson, S. S. B. Smith,								Proctor's Lane. South Street.
Thomas Smith,		Har			ц,						wer V	Vat	er i	Stre	et.
DesBrisay, Teesdale,	Mi	do. ss M	[cN	eil,							arr St		t.
Allen, Cassidy,	M	8. V	aleı do.	ntir	le,					Du	do.	ree	t.
Thurlow,		Har	t,								een's			•
G. O. Huestis, l'uttle, A.S.	S. Barss, J. DeWolfe,								Poplar Grove. Morris Street.
Daniel, Duncan,	J. Northup, J. B. Bennett,								Bel Air, North Street. Poplar Grove.
Sprague,	Mr. Chipman,								Morris Street.
England, R. A. Temple, Jr.	Mr. Sweet, Mrs. Hugh Bell,								Gottingen Street. Bloomfield.
S. F. Huestis, Scott,	Mr. Sutherland, Mr. Way,							Maynard Street. Lockman Street.
Snowball,	Ju	dge	Mai	rsh	all,						d	0.
Allison, A.M. M. Pickles,	T. Mi	F. F.	nig iye,	ght,	,						unswi chmor		Str	eet.
Jost, Perkin,	Ed	ward	J	ost,							per V			Stre	et.
Cardy,	Ed	ward	l Jo	ost,						Up	per V	Vate	er S			¢
Sponagle, Taylor,		v. J. 88 M								Spi	ring ( arr St	Jaro reet	len	Ro	ad.
Davies, Black,	Jei	remi	ah I	Nor	nders					Br	unswi	ck !	Stre		5
G. W. Tuttle,	L.	Har	t,			01,				Qu	ttinge een's	Str	eet
Angwin, F. H. W. Pickles,		B. Ul		mil	ton,						unswi ckmai
Smithson,	s.	L. S	han							Spi	ring (	Jaro	len	Ro	ad.
Butcher, McCarty,	Mr	R. A	ver	do	n,					Co	gswell	S	ree	t.
Peach, I. Sutcliffe,	Mr E.	. We Sute	liffe	rby							mpt (
Buckley, Hart,	Dr.	Ave	ery,							Sou	th St	reet	t.
Botterell,	J. 1	B. M	017		,					Cre	rris S ightoi	n St	tree
Waterhouse, Lockhart,		D. N . Col									een's ring G				ad
os. Sutcliffe,	E.	Sute	liffe	,						Ke	mpt (	ott	age		an latin
R. Johnson, Alcorn,	Ca	pt. S pt. L	art	y,	•					Bru	rr Sta unswi	ck f	Stre
Crane, Athern,		. E. o. H								Spi	ring ( uth S	Jaro	den	•
Milligan.	00		do.	1.4	,						de nu

Upper Water Street.

inst., t All Sc Ardwi the we Physic man 45 Thism had r few h paraly strök such v lingere muchi sion, perfec gure re of th case. at the of Dr his fat. frigate twenty Mogaz venture ity in 1 Warren of Manual Turkey hammeda knell is rit impregnal smoke of l her inquisi rations. to ashes, c decay. At despotism astride the demon pow freedom w sway has ter and exempl which a ordained present of Chest chester. by the and his He was to Samuel 1 of Liverpo and by his All Souls'

Euxine, fro

clime. Gr

glomeratio

cipalities, e

with a sta

population

Austria, wit

every voice

the oppress

freedom w: France, Swi

white coated

bayonet, and charged to th

the vials of that editor,

intimate that the rich she

which is jus

now behold

the same d

the Papal de

imposture c

light, is ring

over all her

Tuscany, Pa

ever from

Edens of 1

ages, chario

robes have free press, i and equal 1

what, proba

ed in this upon her;

sister provi

annexation.

even now s along the §

membered.

listen to the will blend

land's ruin.

Hope f And fr

Russia ai

provinces.

rivet anew t

erator of It

rope as the

under imper

War,s bu

history?

Beautiful

Wherever

Deat

Thi

remain pired We st

ed in will be

mader thodist

life ne sustained, as a son, a husband, a father, state that we have also just received a donation within the walls. The hand-book has therefore he ever wrote-a work which caused him much pain after his conversion. Many a copy has he a brother, a preacher, a friend, the excellencies of £5 sterling for the same object from the Wes-been withdrawn; but the pique of the artists population soon became general, and the Christhrown into the flames, heartily wishing that all of character were delightfully exhibited. * were consumed. In 1852, he went to Halifax. His style of preaching, was discursive, rapid, the hands of the Chairman the Rev. E. Botterell. expecting to meet with more encouragement, in attractive and often brilliant,-displaying more his literary efforts, but was doomed to disap-pointment. Every project failed, till at last he and logic, without which there is no true oratory, reached me where I am once more laid up with by ballot "scheme. Taking advantage of a thin lay aside their speaks and clubs for a time. One perceived and felt that God was angry with him, were happily blended in most of his sermons. my old foe at my throat. I have heard of your House, and at a moment when no one dreamed of the chiefs of the heathen party then prophesied and had better work for him todo. In his distress, But I believe he was more useful than popular, sorrow, and do pray that He who alone can what was coming on, Mr. Berkeley introduced that he would kill the chief who defended the he turned to the Lord in prayer, -read the bible, which is seldom the case with talented preachers. sorrow, and do pray that He who alone can what was coming on, Mr. Berkeley introduced missionaries, and would bring a hurricane and head in such deep afflictions may give his pet bill, and pushing it to a division before missionaries, and would bring a hurricane and which he had greatly neglected, since his youth-ful days,—though to the medded admonitions of his father,—confessed his sins before God, with pentential terrs —confessed his sins before God, with pentential terrs —confessed his first pentential terrs —confessed his for your Nova Scotian Brick, for our Sanctuary with pentential terrs —confessed his sins before God, with pentential terrs —confessed his construction to the for your Nova Scotian Brick, for our Sanctuary heighbourhood, obtained a majority in favour of with pentential tears,—sought by faith in the others since the last Conference, have ceased to in the metropolis of the god of this world. It a second reading. The House will not be so however, was not so relentless as the savage, blood of Jesus, the forgiveness of his sins, and live on earth. But the head of the church ever is I think, the first missionary offering that has caught again. soon became a happy christian, full of love to souls, and ready to obey the will of his Heavenly at the first missionary offering that has caught again. The Commission appointed to re-consider the fruit trees and property of the savages were with us at the prosperity attending Methodism the come to us, except from France, and very grate. souls, and ready to obey the will of his Heavenly Father. He soon engaged in the glorious work Father. He soon engaged in the glorious work Father. He soon engaged in the glorious work of calling sinners to repentance. The Lord of the haborers into His of calling sinners to repentance. The Lord of the interesting character, spiritually harvest." G. O. HUESTIS. granted tokens of approval, and being encouraged, and directed, by Bro. R. E. Crane, then Mr. JAMES MOORES, the subject of the followon the Sydney Circuit, -he gave himself up fully to the work of the ministry. ing notice, was a native of Twillingate, Newfil. His first appointment was Guysborough, where He died in the Lord on the 23rd ult., aged 83 friends be blessed and prospered. he laboured with great acceptance and success. years. Having made many inquiries respecting He was entirely consecrated to the work .- tra- his early history, I have been informed by some velling incessantly and everywhere preaching who knew him for a period of nearly fifty years, Christ. Yet finding time to pursue with sur- that during that time, at least, he had, judging prising diligence, a variety of studies bearing from his conduct, the fear of God before his eyes directly upon the great work to which he volun- - and according to the light he then had, he entarily gave up all his energies. His deep devo- deavored to walk worthy of the Lord unto all tion to God, was manifest to all.

From our own Correspondent. ion to God, was manifest to all. His Superintendent once speaking of him to work. Nearly twenty years ago the late Rev. America monopolises the general interest, to the exclusion of foreign politics. The plot is evipleasing, and strove to be fruitful in every good another Minister, testified, that Bro. McKinnon, Wm. Marshall was appointed, as the first Wesdently thickening, and we expect to hear by was the holiest man that had ever come within leyan Minister, to this place. He found but few every mail of some grand and decisive engagethe range of his acquaintance. The writer well friends of Methodism here ; and they had to sufment which will bring this unhappy and fratriciknows the sentiments of the Guysborough peo- fer no small degree of persecution. Foremost dal conflict to an issue. The beginning of the ple in reference to the subject of these sketches. amongst them was our departed friend, whose American difficulty afforded simply a spectacle Many young men of late years have laboured on attachment to it did not falter neither did his

for other nations to witness and wonder at .--that extensive Circuit, but none have left an im- courage fail in the time of trial; but he stood by pression of the right kind,-deeper and more it through evil report and through good report ; hallowed than Bro. McKinnon. Sometimes his through honour and through dishonour. mind was so absorbed in study, even when tra- Through the instrumentality of Weslevan Me- paralysed-people thousands of miles away from -with nothing of them visible but chimney velling, that he seemed almost to forget that he thodism he was more fully instructed in the plan the scene of strife are starving, and there is an pots. Thousands of people are thrown out of was still flesh and blood. As an illustration, of redemption; he "believed with the heart unto we give the following fact. With a book before righteousness, and with his mouth made confes- contest. The inviolable neutrality which has neighbourhood must be given up, it is to be his eyes, and the reins of the bridle of his horse sion unto salvation." He let his light shine be- been maintained by the Governments of Eng- leared that many more must be reduced to want. fastened to his arm, he proceeded slowly on one fore men and caused the influence of his religion land and France is one of the most chivalrous of his journies, -after a time the bridle slipped to be felt, so that many were led "to take know- and generous developments of national and pooff the head of the pony,--which was fonder of ledge of him that he had been with Jesus." He litical life. The forbearance of the two coun- inuifulness of the land. It will hadly be begrazing than of the itinerant life, under the not was ready to do " good unto all men, but espec- tries in quietly allowing their own populations lieved that a time of distress and calamity like over attentive, yet very kind superintendance of ially to them who were of the household of faith." to suffer and starve, for the sake of maintaining his master. However the anxious student, un- He loved the house and the cause of God, and the independency of the combatants, is something their harvest of opportunity. Hundreds of them their charge as soon as possible. conscious of the liberty of the animal, pursued though he had to walk fully a mile and a half, vet as unique as it is admirable. Unfortunately the rove about at night, and enter the upper winhis way at least one mile, before he became his seat in the sanctuary (until within a few weeks contending parties do not recognize or credit lows of houses, the lower rooms of which are aware of the fact, that the possession of a bride does not always imply the security of the horse, upon retracing his steps, less intense in study, be found all praise. He was also ever on the alert aware of the fact, that the possession of a bridle does not always imply the security of the horse, perform the innocent creature cropping the security of the horse, he found liberality in sustaining the work of the Lord was with great satisfaction. Mathodist Preachers are expected to manifest I have heard of some who exceeded excellence them out of the pulpit, and of others who, have won the name "fast drivers," neither of these faults belonged to Bro. McKinnon. His second station, was Margate, formerly a part of Bedeque tation, was Margate, formerly a part of Bedeque station, was margate, formery a part of Beaeque Circuit, P. E. I. Here he was blessed and made a blessing, as many witnesses can testify. Many an article from his pen, appeared in a paper com-menced about that time, with a design to de-menced menced about that time, with a design to de-fend Protestant truth from the insidious at-were closed during the afternoon, and by far the made as light as possible. A decree of the Em-has now reached 50,000 pounds. The mauso-der the notice of the multitudes of foreigners who tacks of Romanism and designing politicians. His next Circuit was Middle Musquodoboit, not a Methodist soil, but where his fidelity, taand bless template ing the upspringing of the seed scattered by his Twillingate, Newfld., Feb. 5th, 1862.

faithful predecessor.

levan Ministers of the Newfoundland District by does them little credit. The monotony of the House of Commons was

LEEDS, May 28, 1862. varied a few evenings since by a clever stroke of The missionaries, though knowing their lives borne, I am sure our churches in Nova Scotia a grand measure for a general and complete for-but the light thrown upon naval science by the May you, your brethren, and all our beloved fight between the Merriman and the Monitor led the Government to pause before commencing operations, and secure the opinion of the ablest WM. ARTHUR. naval and military engineers in the country. This opinion is now published, and it will be looked upon as perfectly decisive. The commissioners MAY, 30th. 1852. vill always be impossible to carry on board a may " come on." The Middle Level Deluge though not increasfor other nations to witness and wonder at. _____ Ine plate 2011 2010 and the key, Mr. Matneson and plate But now the case is different: the question is no ing is yet assuming a more threatening form Matheson were taken to Aneiteum, and after but now the case is different: the question is no longer American,—the trade of all Europe is paralysed—people thousands of miles away from the scene of strife are starving, and there is an elmost universed demand for a culture of the subject of The flow of such a volume of salt water over the listrict must interfere for a long time with the this is eagerly seized by a horde of thieves as I have heard of some who exceeded excellence in this respect who with difficulty could keep below in the early part of January he was seized with Coron nives a blow for a time to the hone of the parts. The Queen has received an depot at Cologne, 71,000; from Frankfort, 83,-are specified who had heap formattion in the place of means in the place of means in the place of the service, our rors, exclaiming, "Oh Death', where is thy in this respect who with difficulty could keep them out of the pulpit, and of others who, have them out of the pulpit, and of others who, have paralysis, which, as before stated, terminated his the mine of the hope of the mine of the hope of the mine of the hope of the service, our the mine of the hope of Consort Memorial Fund creeps slowly along. It vision has been made to bring the Scriptures ungreater portion of the adult population of Twill-peror elevages him to the rank of senator, and leum which the Queen is erecting in Frogmore will throng the metropolis during the season of not a sternouist son, out where accomplished much, for the lents and piety have accomplished much, for the he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I de-liver him : "I will set him on high heaven he that France does not intend to make any change advancement of vital godiness. A beautiful and well deserved tribute of praise was recorded to his memory, in the pages of the Provincial Weshis memory, in the pages of the Provincial Wes-leyan not long since, from the near and ready pen of Bro. L. Gaetz, the youthful minister with a memory of the just is blessed." The memory of the just is blessed." ese martyrs with all the honours,-nearly two present number of letters exhibits an increase of for a similar purpose. A grant of 1,600 copies This house is to be known as the "Bristol Wes-It is a strik-Feb. 5th, 1862.

Payson. conspiracy among the heathen portion of the Chapman Burns, tian portion at once prepared to go to war to defend the missionaries and execute vengeance. Harris. Gorham. (h.) Co-Delegate. (c.) Secretary. and the mission property was spared; but the Tanna.

vengeance; and, the other party thirsting for erection of a neat and commodious church in ed, and of an interesting character, spiritually missionaries, acting on the advice of their friends, was wholly under the influence of Roman Catho- the weather proved unpropitious, which militated barricaded their house, and remained within lics-their chapel being the only place of worship against our subscriptions ; but, notwithstanding, while the combat raged without, the house be- in that vicinity: but now, through the kind and we are fully persuaded there are those in our ing sometimes surrounded by one party and benevolent exertions of Joseph Avard, Esq., (a midst who will freely contribute toward the exsometimes by the other. This was repeated for liberal supporter of our cause) with the assisseveral days, till it became known that the lance of other interested friends, we have a house not swell the sum to the amount raised last year, heathen party determined to break through the consecrated to the service of Almighty God, we have reason to hope it will not be far in the house and murder the missionaries, when the where we can assemble for His worship, "none rear. We also record with gratitude the outmounted on stone forts which will be capable of latter made for the bush in the night, and re- daring to make us afraid." Sabbath, 12th of pouring of the Holy Spirit on the Baie Road inking any iron vessel that can be built. It mained there several days till they were nearly January, was the time chosen for its dedication. starved. When the heathen found the mission- As the weather proved favourable, congregations borders." Services have been conducted there during the latter part of the winter in a most ship guns of such a calibre as can readily be aries gone, they burned and destreyed the entire were proportionably large. Rev. Charles Deship guns of such a calibre as can readily be solve aries gone, they burned and destreyed the entire worked behind stone parapets. The fortifica-property, to the value of £1,000. After in-Wolfe, A.M., preached the dedicatory sermon, in the building up of the Church, and the conons are therefore to be commenced forthwith, _____ numerable hardships and hairbreath escapes the evidently accompanied by the power of the Holy there are to be iron-plated,—they are to be armed devoted missionaries were at length rescued. A Ghost. In connection with the service, the devoted missionaries were at length rescued. A Ghost. In connection with the service, the there are also cheering indications of the return with monster Armstrongs,-and then the world sail appeared in sight, signals of distress were Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was adminismade on the island, and in due time an armed tered. Whilst tue followers of Jesus commemo- of prodigals to their father. May the good boat was sent to the rescue. The Rev. Mr. rated "His dying love," a solemn awe rested Lord prosper his cause. Paton and the Rev. Mr. Matheson and Mrs. upon them, and God's glory filled the house.

Previous appointments obliged Brother Demeans of which they might carry on their labours on the islands in the vicinity of Tanna, till a favourable opportunity should present itself of again prosecuting the good work among its be-but in consequence of ill-health, was unable to nighted islanders. The noble expounders of the Gospel have been driven back, but they are not dismayed. They are determined to return to this soul stirred, notwithstanding indisposition, arose and for a few minutes addressed the connighted islanders. The noble expounders of the arose and for a few minutes addressed the con-by the presentation of two young persons at the 7,000. The total issues of the Society from its Author of all good, and a desire to promote God's glory in the community, he would now > more than sufficient to liquidate the debt. "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow !"

Charles Black, Brunswick Street Mr. Nash, Mr. Imley, Mrs. Valentin Queen Street. Birmingham Street Duke Street. W. G. Coomba. Brunswick Street Mr. Goreham. Common. M. Missionary Meeting. (a.) President of the Conference. C. Conference Collectio L. Love Feast. S. Sacrament. O. Ordination. JOHN S. ADDY, Superintendent Immediately followed the Missionary Meet-Baie de Verte Circuit. ings, the first of which was held at the Bay, The "lovers of Zion" will, doubtless, rejoice when we were favoured with the services of our

do. T. A. S. DeWolfe, tension of Christ's Kingdom. Though we may community, effecting an enlargement of " Zion's version of sinners. In an adjoining community

Whilst God increases the Church militant, he also adds to the Church triumphant those who spoke from "Thy Kingdom come," in an earn-est and impressive manner. In the evening we the 23rd of last August very suddenly removed were again favoured with the Dr.'s services, who, with unabated zeal continued to evince his de-to her home in the skies, leaving a fond husband gregation, urging sinners to consecrate them- death, she continued a faithful and consistent selves to the Lord, which call was responded to by the presentation of two young persons at the

THE ROCKALL FISHING GROUND .-- The smack present the house, and site on which it stands, Miranda and Fanny, of Hull, Captain Bully, arto the Conference (through the Co-Delegate) to be held in the usual moments of the Co-Delegate) to be held in the usual manner, claiming only £150 land, and but three and a-half days on the fish and two seats. In reply the Co-Delegate said ing ground, during which brief period she fished he felt satisfied the Trustees would not hesitate 107 scores of eod, some of which weighed 28 lbs. to assume the trust on such conditions; that he after the bone had been taken out, and the avercould assure him the Conference would highly appreciate such an act of benevolence. The pre-isso abundant and very large. Captain Bully ference of the pews was then promptly and satis- reports that sharks were almost as numerous as factorily disposed of ; from which we realized cod, and of considerable size. The weather was very changeable. The smack named left othe four vessels on the ground, and spoke the Gamester, of Hull, on the 9th, with 31 scores of cod of the habi of ninety m in this cour There were attached to whose serv God has pla throne of I II. was edu seems to b an imperial withstandir emancipated slaveholdin. est noble i serfs, and

$1,250,000; can compel wages, and v an annual thousand ti remembrane terlitz. En dismembere England m South, und to her flag and fuithf colour-the with our sto of Louis France from Now let the sceptre