

Certain property transferred to the said Corporation.

2. From and after the passing of this Act, the said lots of land hereinbefore described, the buildings erected and being erected thereon, and all the furniture of the said schools and class-rooms shall be, and the same are hereby transferred to the said Corporation, which shall have the possession, enjoyment, management, administration and control thereof for the purposes aforesaid, according to the provisions of this Act :

Rights of third parties saved.

2. But nothing contained in this Act shall prejudice any rights of third parties with respect to the said lots of land and other properties as aforesaid, existing before the passing of this Act ; and all such third parties shall have and retain against the said Corporation all and every the rights, privileges and actions they had and possessed in respect of the said properties before the passing of this Act.

Acting Curé to represent the Corporation.

3. In the case of a vacancy in the said living from any cause whatever, the said Corporation shall be represented, under its said name, by the Priest exercising the functions of Curé in the said Parish, until a Curé has been appointed to the said Parish by the Roman Catholic ecclesiastical authority of the Archidiocèse of Quebec.

Public Act.

4. This Act shall be deemed a Public Act, and the Interpretation Act shall apply thereto.

C A P. C I V.

An Act to authorize the Curé and Marguilliers of the Œuvre and Fabrique of the Parish of Notre Dame de Québec, to borrow a certain sum of money on the security of the property of the said Fabrique.

[Assented to 18th September, 1865.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Curé and Marguilliers of the Œuvre and Fabrique of the Parish of Notre Dame de Québec, have, by their petition to Parliament represented that the said Fabrique is now indebted to a considerable number of persons, residing in various parts of the Province, in sums amounting together to twenty-five thousand pounds currency ; that the payment of interest on the said sums to so many persons, at different times and places, as it falls due, is very inconvenient, and that the said Fabrique is moreover obliged to borrow money in order to pay off such of its creditors as require the payment of the capital sums due to them ; that the petitioners could obtain the above-mentioned sum from one person, with easy terms of payment, and that it would be very much for the interest of the said Fabrique that advantage should be taken of the opportunity to substitute one creditor for the many it has at present ; but that the person who offers to lend the said sum