Boyle, who gave a brief farewell address prior to his departure for Winnipeg, Man., where he has received an appointment of army chaplain to His Majesty's Forces. After the service a vestry meeting was held at which the parishioners gave Mr. Boyle a very handsome gold-mounted walking stick suitably engraved.

Rev. and Mrs. V. O. Boyle left Monday for Toronto where they will visit with relatives previous to the former reporting to his unit. It is interesting to learn that Mrs. Boyle will remain in Wellington where she with her husband are very popular for their ardent work.

Address and Presentation

A large party of friends met at the home of J. S. McLean, eighth concession of Tyndinaga to wish Charles McLean and Vincent O'Neill good-bye and good luck upon the event of their leaving home for overseas service. They were each presented with a wrist watch from their friends and a prayer book and testament from the Red Cross. The following address was read by Miss Jennie Alford:

Dear Charlie and Vincent:—We, your friends and neighbors, have gathered here this evening for the purpose of bidding you farewell before your departure for overseas service. We feel sure that your loss will be felt most keenly in your home. We will miss you greatly from our surrounding circle and neighborhood, where we always found you willing to lend a helping hand. We feel that we could not let this opportunity pass without showing by some little token the high regard and esteem in which you are held. We feel sure that you both will do your duty in the great cause of freedom which you will be fighting for. We hope and trust that these losses and sacrifices will not be in vain and that soon the success of our Allied arms will lift the war cloud in France and our dark days will vanish and that you two of Canada's honored soldiers will soon be back in our midst again as two of Canada's honored soldiers.

We now ask you to accept these watches, hoping they will help you to bear in mind the kind friends you left behind. We all join in wishing you good luck and a speedy return to your home and loved ones.

Signed on behalf of your friends, Henry Alford, John Goodfellow.

After a short program consisting of vocal and instrumental music, Mr. and Mrs. Way were called to the dining room to receive the gifts. Although taken completely by surprise both made suitable replies thanking the friends for their kindness and inviting all to visit them in their new home near Stockdale.

The many useful presents the bride received, showed the high esteem in which she was held among her young friends.

After light refreshments were served the crowd, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Way all prosperity in their life journey, retired to their several homes.

Soldiers in Ten Weeks

Take Less Time to Fit Themselves for Trenches Than Do Imperials—and Are Fine Marksmen.

London, May 31.—Golden gorse glows on the sandy hillsides, a touch of color among the dark olive green of the heather not yet in bloom. Hard by a big pond of clear water, whose sandy bottom makes it a delectable place for bathers, reflects the almost cloudless blue of an English May-time sky. While from the woodlands, which, clad in new verdure, stretch away from the lakelet's edge, the voices of myriad birds fill the air.

When Canada's young draftees, fresh from across the seas, tumble out of their tents at reveille after their first night in an English camp, such is the scene that confronts them. Such are the surroundings of the Canadian segregation camp amid the Surrey moorlands. Disembarking at the port of entry, the newly arrived on these shores are brought straight here. They reach camp at night, have a hot meal, and at once seek repose until summoned by the matutinal bugle, when their training as soldiers in the Canadian army has its official commencement.

Grouped in clumps which will accommodate one thousand men each, the snow white bell tents dot the moor, the name of the encampment being picked out by the roadside in whitewashed stones. When your correspondent arrived the flaps of all the tents were up to permit the air to circulate. In front of each, in plates and cooking accoutrements of their occupants. Out on a neighboring exercise ground the boys were going through their preliminary training.

In Quarantine

All troops on arrival in England from Canada must spend 28 days in this segregation camp before being drafted off to other camps to complete their training. Disease sometimes breaks out on shipboard, though generally nothing more serious than a few cases of mumps or measles. However, quarantine is a needful precaution, and, outside certain boundaries, no man is allowed to stir until the time is up. Shore leave is not granted until the draftee has been five weeks in England. On his first day at the segregation camp there is muster and roll call. The second day is devoted to medical and dental inspection, the third to ordnance and kit inspection. On the fourth morning his web equipment is scrutinized, and immediately after his regular training starts. Though the Imperial authorities allow longer the Canadians have cut the course of training to 10 weeks to meet the demand for men. In 10 weeks' time, which includes the 28 days in segregation, the draftee has become a finished soldier, ready for the trenches.

Never Say "Conscript"

That hateful word "conscript" is absolutely forbidden in the segregation camp and in all other camps to which draftees presently proceed to be absorbed by their respective units. Punishment swift and sharp awaits anyone who taunts the newcomers. But announcement of this penalty has been seemingly superfluous. The general attitude of the veterans and volunteers toward the draftees has from the outset been kindly. Not a few of the newcomers have naturally had some apprehensions as to the reception they would meet, but their fears have been groundless. A pleasant surprise has awaited them—a comfortable camp in beautiful surroundings and a friendly staff, keen on discipline, but anxious to make soldiers out of new arrivals with as little severity as possible.

Canadian officers and non-coms on the staff are loud in their praise of the fine physique and intelligence of the draftees. Not even the volunteers of the First Division showed a greater adaptability to learn soldiering. And the men who told me this meant what they said.

Must Clean Plates

Each clump of tents has its own kitchen, and the men are fed on the new self-help system. Everyone gets enough, but woe betide the man who takes more than he requires. Punishment awaits anyone who leaves food on his plate. It is thus that the local pig-keepers pay much less per pair for Canadian swill than they do for Imperial. Waste has been eliminated. That the food provided is good was demonstrated by the Canadians preparing for the pot. Good beef, fat bacon, lay ready for the knife and here I tasted the first white bread I had eaten for months.

Tortured For Nearly Two Years

MRS. PLANTE FOUND RELIEF IN DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

She Tells How They Helped Her Kidney Disease and Made a New Woman of Her.

St. Florence, Que., June 3rd. (Special).—"Two boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills made a new person of me." The speaker is Madame M. L. Plante, of this place, and her numerous friends here fully verify her statement.

"For nearly two years," Mrs. Plante continues, "kidney disease tortured me. I heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and made up my mind to try them, and to my surprise they did me good almost at once. Two boxes cured me completely. I recommend them to all my friends."

"Mrs. Plante is only one of many who have had a similar experience. They were weak and run-down, and sick all over. Dodd's Kidney Pills helped them. How? Simply by curing the kidneys. The diseased kidneys were the cause of all the trouble. They were failing to strain the impurities out of the blood, and the result was disease all over the body. Dodd's Kidney Pills helped the kidneys, the impurities were strained out of the blood. The result was pure blood and good health all over the body. The cause of the disease had been removed."

Women in Convention

For the first time the Campbellford District Women's Missionary Convention was held at Wellman's Methodist Church on Thursday.

Mrs. R. G. Lawler, B.A., Norwood, the District Organizer, was in the chair, and Mrs. F. B. Dooze, Hastings, was secretary. The report from Auxiliaries, Circles and Bands were very gratifying, although the loss of so many younger men is indirectly felt in some cases, as it does not allow the same freedom of action for younger women. However, there is an increase in the number of Mission Bands and in givings. The ladies of Wellman's and Rawdon Circuit supplied dinner and supper in the Orange Hall. The District Organizer reports an increased attendance and deepened interest in the convention.

Given a Shower

On Tuesday evening, May 21st, a very pleasant time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Bell, Riverside, when a shower was given in honor of their daughter, Florence, who was married on Saturday, May 18th, to Mr. Blake Way.

About 8 o'clock a number of young people invaded the home to await the coming of the bride and groom, who after a short honeymoon were returning home to spend the evening.

Among the young folks present were three school-mates of the bride, namely, E. W. Maybée of the Flying Corps, Toronto; Gunner H. F. Lohnes and Pte. H. Rupert, both of Kingston.

After a short program consisting of vocal and instrumental music, Mr. and Mrs. Way were called to the dining room to receive the gifts. Although taken completely by surprise both made suitable replies thanking the friends for their kindness and inviting all to visit them in their new home near Stockdale.
