FIRE, LIFE, AND INLAND MARINE Incorporated 1833.

THE Paths are many employed by the form the first of the path of t CREDIT RATES OF PREMIUM.

THE gre t and decided success which has attained this lastitution, has induced the Directors to REDUCE the RATES originally required in British North America, to the ordinary European Rafes. The result of such Beduction is to enable parties to avail themselves of the important benedits to Life Assurance at much losser Rules of Premium than those of any other Assurance Company t ansacting business in Canada.

The Directors have also resolved to extend to British North America the advantages afforded by the HALF CREDIT RATES of PREMIUM which have been so highly approved, and are so
