The St. Thomas and Elgin county branch of the War Contingent Association yesterday shipped 1,440 pairs of socks to England.

While Christian M. Henrich, aged 50, was conversing with workmen at the Waterloo Manufacturing Company he was stricken with heart trouble.

Subscriptions totalling $175,000 were announced at a mass meeting at the Princess Winter Gardens, London, to fire the first guns in the campaign to be launched Monday for $300,000 for the Red Cross and Patriotic Funds.

SUB CAMPAIGN FLAT FAILURE

Enemy Fail in Main Object; Trade of Great Britain Unhindered NOT ONE PER CENT. Of Shipping Trade Has Been Destroyed up to The Present

Washington, Feb. 21.—The British Embassy issued a statement last night announcing that Germany's widely advertised campaign of "truthless murder on the high seas" resulted in the loss of less than one ship in every hundred plying in or out of British ports between February 1 and 14.

"The German wireless press messages," said the statement, "since the German declaration of indiscriminate submarine warfare against merchant shipping within a zone around the United Kingdom and France, have been confined to advertising achievements of German submarines.

"Claims to have paralyzed the mercantile marine activity of the allies, and more particularly that of Britain, have appeared together with hints at a vast increase in the number of German submarines so employed.

Figures tell the story. "During the period in question the following are the figures of ships which have arrived and sailed from ports in the United Kingdom: "Date—Feb. 1 to Feb. 14, arrivals: British, 4,953; allied, 227; neutral, 497, total, 4,777. "Sailings: British, 3,928; allied, 225; neutral, 341; total, 4,514. "Daily average between February 1 and February 14. Arrivals: British, 290; allied, 16; neutral, 35; total 341. "Sailings: British, 280; allied, 16; neutral, 26; total, 322.

"It should be remembered, however, that totals of arrivals and departures do not include fishing vessels, coastwise and local coastwise traffic, nor craft of under 100 tons burden. Omitting these, and comparing totals of those sunk with the totals of the arrivals and departures:

It is interesting to note that the widely advertised campaign of ruthless murder on the high seas on which Germany has embarked has resulted in a loss of less than one ship for every 100 which has arrived or left British ports during the two weeks from February 1 to February 14.

London, Feb. 22.—The explosion in ammunition factories at Dresden, during the Christmas holidays was the greatest disaster of the kind which has occurred anywhere since the war began, according to a Central News dispatch from Christiania, quoted a Dresden despatch to the Associated Press. More than 1,000 persons were killed out of 30,000 employed in the wrecked factories. Inspector William visited the scene on the following day.

A Paris despatch, dated January 27, said that, according to a letter taken from a German officer and written from Dresden, the Dresden arsenal had been blown up and 1,000 women and young girls killed. The letter dated, December 30.

Mr. Campbell Sweeney, former superintendent of the Bank of Montreal in that Province, has just returned to Vancouver after an absence of two years in England.

Over the Steamer War Search is Carried on

By Courier Leased Wire.
Halifax, N.S., Feb. 22.—Exploration of the baggage of the German party on board the Scandinavian American Steamer Frederick VII revealed that each and every member of it has plentifully stocked self or herself with goods which scarce in the Fatherland, to which they are sailing. The most valuable line of goods among them, however, is cotton and explosive. It is reported that one secretary of the German embassy in Washington alone several hundred suits of pyjamas, view of the close association between cotton and explosive it is thought that the custom officials here will have the Germans of some of the excess cotton goods and make allowance for them.

Have Money.
The Germans too are all well-placed with money, most of it in cash. This is also contraband, and it is understood here that it will be changed for them into some form of currency less useful to the Fatherland.

Rigid Guard.
The rigidity with which the operations upon the Frederick VII have been conducted have not been relaxed as the time has passed. Attention to keeping a close watch on the passengers and crew of the vessel the guards placed over them themselves under the surveillance secret service men. One of them found this out when, after he broken the rule forbidding him converse with anybody connected with the ship he was taken off post, searched and before being released, given a good lecture.

Most of the custom officials, have been engaged in going over ship, have been retained on the coast to offset the barest possibility of communication being established between the boat and the shore.
