Delta

St. Paul's Sunday School (Anglican), Delta, will hold its annual picnic on Saturday, Sept. 4th, at Delta Park. The members of the congregation and their friends are asked to join the children in their day of fun.

Greenbush

Mr. Wm. Justus had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse last week by a kick from another, which broke its leg.

Rev. Wm. Wells spent two weeks at the summer school for rural ministers, held at McDonald College, Montreal, in August.

Miss Anna Stevens, of Regina, supervisor of the primary schools of that city, spent most of her holidays at the home of Mr. Walter Olds. She left on the 29th ult., for her home in the western city.

Miss Hattie Paterson, of Sault Ste. Marie, and her sister, Mrs. Carrie

Metz and children, spent the holiday season with their sister, Mrs. Geo. Taplin, the month of July having been spent by all at Charleston Lake.

Dr. Nat. Stevens and Mrs. Stevens of Clifton, Ill., have been visiting relatives here for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pritchard, of Newark, N.J., spent a couple of weeks here with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Taplin have gone on a visit to relatives in the Western States, having accompanied Mrs. Metz and children on her return to her home at Denver, Col.

Miss Helen Miller is improving nicely since having the misfortune to fracture a limb.

Mr. Clifford Blanchard and daughters, also Mr. John Miller, of New York, have been renewing old acquaintances here.

Mr. W. Connell spent Sunday with friends at Mallorytown.

Hard Island

Miss Violet Robinson leaves this week for Lyn, where she has been engaged as teacher.

Mrs. J. Foley is slightly improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Dunham and family left this week for their new home in Victoria, B.C. A farewell was held at their old home here on Monday evening, when about fifty of their neighbors and friends assembled with them.

The following address was read by Mrs. B. Algure, when a handsome cake plate was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Dunham by Mrs. Philip Yates:

To Mr. and Mrs. Dunham and Family:

Dear Friends,—Once again on the eve of your departure to a distant home, we have gathered in the old home to bid you farewell. Here we have often shared your hospitality and enjoyed many hours of pleasure and social intercourse. You have also in all times shared in our sorrows as well as our joys. The memory of this will always be a strong tie between us.

You will long be missed by us when your places are vacant.

As a family you are all richly endowed with those qualities of heart and mind that will endear you to all, both the young and the older, wherever you may be; new friends and new interests will come to you.

We wish to express to you all our warmest, heartiest wishes for health, happiness and prosperity in the interesting place where your new home awaits you.

If at times a lonely feeling should come for the old surroundings, let trust and courage be your watchword and time will do the rest in overcoming it.

Accept this little gift and in its daily use it may call up a pleasant thought.

May Heaven bless and keep you till we meet again, if not here we will in a better land.

Signed on behalf of the friends and neighbors.

Harlem

The apple crop is almost a complete failure and but for Saturday night's rain late pastures would have been very poor indeed.

The heavy wind on Saturday destroyed many fruit trees.

Dr. Baylor, of Kingston-on-the-Hudson, and Mrs. Baylor, were Saturday guests of Harlem friends.

Mr. E. R. Alford was back to his home town with his American wife last week. Ernie is one of the Leeds boys who has made good in the land of the Stars and Stripes.

The beautiful imagery in which our G.B.C. scribe describes the rosy month of June, reminded us that just a year ago in that month, one once much beloved in about Athens dropped dead in his garden among the flowers he loved so well. Restoration is made to the late James A. Carmon, B.A., M.A., who was principal of the Athens High School.

Early one Sunday morning he went for a turn in the garden, he loved to tend, and in a few minutes when Mrs. Carmon called to him he had passed away.

Charleston

The funeral of the late Britton Killingbeck was held on Tuesday afternoon from his late residence here to Trinity Church, Oak Leaf, and was one of the largest seen in some time, many coming from a distance. The floral tributes were but silent tokens of the esteem in which deceased was held by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. The pallbearers were James Kelsey, John Moorehead, William Halladay, A. W. Johnston, M. J. Johnson and Ormond Green.

Little Miss Viola Woods is on the sick list.

Mrs. Stone and daughter, Toronto, are visiting at W. G. Crozier's.

L. Slack is visiting friends at Lisbon, N.Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Halladay, of Brockville, spent the past week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Halladay.

Little Miss Helen Covey fell off the wharf into the water on Sunday. She was promptly pulled out and aside from a good wetting and a little frightened, she received no injuries.

Harry Webster surprised some of his neighbors on Tuesday by slipping off and being united in marriage to Miss Mina J. Pritchard, of Athens. The bride is a former teacher of Charleston school and during her stay here made many friends who extend to her a glad welcome.

Miss Harriet Green, Lansdowne, is renewing old acquaintances, a guest of her sister, Mrs. Mulveina.

J. A. Flood, cheesemaker, who has been suffering from blood poisoning, is much better.

THEY WENT A-DRIVING WITH PRESIDENT WILSON.

"A cat may look at a king," but here are the three American boys who have ridden and talked with the man who has been hailed by all Europe as the savior of the world. Some men have lived to a ripe old age and have walked with kings, but it is not every American boy who, after being chased by a "cop" for wading in a creek, has been invited to ride with the President of the United States. Left to right: Mickey Deegan, Marcus Mensh and "Tilly" Falcone are shown in the photograph talking over the good time they had with the President. "The President is a regular feller," said the kids. He asked us about the movies an' everything. Mickey's father is a taxi driver and of Irish extraction; Marcus is the son of an Austrian grocer, and "Tilly" is the son of an Italian barber.

IT'S SO EASY IT'S FUN!

It's the simplest sort of a job to take an old, time-worn chair, a small can of Glidden Jap-a-lac and a brush and in a few minutes' time bring out the beauty of that chair you've hidden for years.

And it's fun to see its youthfulness return under the magic of the brush; to see again—through this clear, easy flowing and double-durable varnish stain—the beautiful grain of the natural wood.

You can find an old piece of furniture in your attic and any size can of Jap-a-lac at our store. Bring them together. It won't cost you much, and you'll have a lot of fun getting some "brand new" furniture through the magic of Jap-a-lac.

You can also obtain Glidden Paints and Varnishes for the bigger jobs at
