THE FANCY DRESS BALL

Children of Miss McLean's Dancing School Held Delightful Event

MANY PRETTY COSTUMES

The children's ball in the audi-The children's ball in the auditorium last evening was a pleasing function in every way. About two hundred dancers, mostly of tender age, were present, and the score of lively steps which made up the program were all well supported. James Robinson's orchestra, accompanied by Miss Rhody, served up music in an excellent manner and the little ones indulged in a merry whirl of gayety with true youthful engayety with true youthful

The room was very tastefully decorated with bunting, flags and lanterns, and beneath this bright spread of colors the gaily dressed children danced with surprising grace and correctness. The costumes worn by the girls were most bewitching and the neatly attired little gentlemen who guided their fair partners through the dances with becoming decorum, all wore large and beautiful flowers in their coats.

Miss McLean's dancing academy has ever been famous for turning out dancers of skill and ability, but one had to see the children dancing seatch the search of the search o

Better Than Spanking

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitu-tional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box 4, Windsor, Ont., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Sould no more but successful nome treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her to-day if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child; the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also oures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

If your child comes in from play coughing or showing evidences of la grippe, sore throat, or sickness of any kind, get out your bottle of Nerviline. Rub the chest and neck with Nerviline, and give internal doses of ten drops of Nerviline in sweetened water every two hours. This will prevent any serious trouble. No liniment or pain reliever equals Poloson's Nerviline, which has been the great family remedy in Canada for the past fifty years. Try a 25c. bottle of Nerviline.
