—Saturday will be a big day at the 2 T's Store. Staff of 15 salesmen to wait on you. So you will not be detained. No more than two shirts allowed to each customer. They want to distribute these values in general. Come early and get first choice. They open at 8 a. m.

—Miss May Buckley, who takes the part of Rosalie in "The Right of Way," lost a green pocketbook while out yesterday. It contained a considerable sum of money and an heirloom—an amethyst pin. She reported her loss to the police.

—The police have decided at last to ask the Council to give them more light, as there are some corners in the city that are very dark. Crowds of toughs hang around these corners in the dark, and are a menace to society. There are about 25 corners for which they will dark, and are a menuce to society. There are about 25 corners for which they will ask lights.

—Col. ingersoll has not yet returned to the city, although he was expected back yesterday. It is understood that the Beach Commissioners will not give his company an answer in regard to the Beach amusement park for a week or ten days. They desire to consult the Government' on the matter, it is supposed.

—Prof. Richard G. Moulton has as o'clock this evening Dr. Moulton will lecture on "The Character of Lady Macbeth." and Miss Gwendolen Holliday, recently from England, will give a vocal solo. On Saturday at 4 p. m. the subject of the lecture will be "The Tempest," Shakespeare's conception of Providence. Mrs. F. W. Brennen will sing. Prof. Moulton is a unique combination of the actor, orator and teacher. He finds his sermons in the great works of literature, whether ancient or modern, whether in the Bible or in Shakespeare, Do not fail to hear his exposition of "Romeo and Juliet," the moral import and the pathos of life's accidents.

W. J. BRYAN.

Depends on Roosevelt, Whether He Will Be a Candidate or Not.

New York, Oct. 5.—A despatch to the Herald from Troy, N. Y., says: It can be asserted — in unquestionable authority hat wm. J. Bryan's candidacy for the presidential nomination is now almost dependent upon what Presi-dent Roosevelt will do about the third-dent Roosevelt will do about the thirdterm movement. If the President yields to the insistent demands to accept the Republican nomination for another term, Mr. Bryan will step saide and permit the leadership of his party to be placed in other hands than his.

"The Nebraskan has been sounding the Roosevelt sentiment as well as the Bryan sentiment in typical centres of New York State since last Monday. He will continue his peregrinations through the state until next Wednesday, when he will start for the west with his mind virtually made up as to what will be the most expedient thing to do with reference to his own candidacy."

buys an Overcoat at random, wears it and finds it plays him false, he drops that make and tries another.

Such promiscuous clothes buying is unwise.

When a man buys a "Sovereign Brand" Overcoat he finds sufficient style, fit, wear and general satisfaction in it to make him return here for his next clothing need.

If you buy a Coat here this season, you won't bother with custom tailors any more.

Of course "Sovereign Brand" Coats cost a little more than the ordinary kind. These good coats are for men who are willing to pay $12, $15, $18, $20, $25 and $30, and the quality of workmanship and material in every garment more than justifies the price. Cheaper Coats at $5 to $10. Mil all
