BY JOHN NEWTON.

(The life of John Newton (London, 1725-1807) has chapters in it as thrilling as any romance. He speet his youth in exciting adventures before the mast and as a midshipman in the English nevy, in the slave trade, and in many foreign countries. But his mature years were spent as a minister in the trade of English never the same properties of English results. In the Olney Hymns.]

Glorious things of thee are spoken,
Zion, city of God;
He, whose word cannot be broken,
Formed thee for his own abode;
On the Rock of Ages founded,
What can shake thy sure repose?
Wh saivation's walls surrounded,
Thou may'st smile at all thy foes.

See, the streams of living waters,
Spring from eternal love,
Well supply thy sons and daughters,
And all fear of want remove:
Who can faint while such a river
Ever flows their thirst to assuage?
Grace which, like the Lord, the giver,
Never fails from age to age.

Round each habitation hovering, See the cloud and fipe appear For a glory and a covering, Showing that the Lord is near! Glorlous things of thee are spoken, Zion, city of our God; He, whose word cannot be broken, Formed thee for his own abode:

He who wears out his welcome y find it hard to get another one.

New York, April 24.-The marke during the morning ruled active and strong, with short covering in evidence. It is estimated in some quarters that the market prices of the falling off in general business have been due to economies introduced by the railroads, and now that these corporations are able to place new securities, general business should in due course be given a sharp forward impetus. In very well informed quarters there is expectation of an extra dividend on American Sugar. One large insulating wire company on this side is running full, and talks of running overtime by May 1, owing to orders on hand. One of the points circulated is that politicians are being given to understand that stocks in this advancing market will be carried for their accounts in return for favors received. The trend is upward.—Ennis & Stoppani.

DUNDAS DOINGS.

W. C. T. U. Event-Annual Meeting of Methodist S. S.

Dundas, April 24.—Under the auspices of the local branch of the W. C. T. U., Mrs. E. M. Stephens, District President of the Toronto branch, gave an address on temperance work and progress, in the Town Hall. The audience was not large and seemed to be lacking in warmth and enthusiasm, as throughout the whole address there was no approach towards applause. Mrs. Stephens, a lady of pleasing personality, gave a very interesting address, in a moderate but convincing address, in a moderate but convincing mannenr. She deserved a much larger audience, and a much less frigid reception. Rev. James Grant occupied the chair and gave a short opening address. Mr. and Mrs. John Lyons, of the Ancaster road, sang two duets, for which Mrs. Allan Binkley played accompaniments, which were cordially received. Mrs. Geo. Pilgrim contributed a piano solo, which was appreciated, as her music always is. Singing the National Anthem brought the meeting to a close. It is just possible that Dundas streets

Singing the National Anthem brought the meeting to a cloke. It is just possible that Dundas streets may go "dry" this year. The by-law regarding this part of corporation work provides that when two-thirds of the ratepayers of a street petition for the service it is provided, and all along the route taxed for the same. Last year, owing to scarcity of water and other causes the service was not very satisfactory, and as a result a good number are refusing to sign the petitions this year. The water wagon has started, but it appears the requisite number of signatures are not yet secured.

The annual meeting of the Methodist Sunday school was held last night, Rev. T. J. Mansell presiding. There was a large attendance and the greatest harmony and enthusiasm. All the reports showed the year to be the best in the history of the school. W. A. Davidson was elected superintendent for the 23rd time: Mayor Moss, assistant secretary, and all the other officers and teachers were re-elected. After the business the officers and teachers were re-elected. After the business the officers and teachers were entertained at supper at the parsonage by Mrs. Mansel.
