

KEDDY ELATED OVER HIS NEW LEASE ON LIFE

Dartmouth Blacksmith Says He was About Past Working When He Got Tanlac and was Then Entirely Relieved of Stubborn Stomach Trouble.

"I simply have been given a new lease on life and I don't believe money could buy a better medicine than Tanlac," said Nathan Keddy, Wentworth St., Dartmouth, N.S., machine blacksmith for the Starr Mfg. Co.

"I was in a very run-down condition for six years, had no relish for my food and what I did eat seemed to do me no good, I lost thirty-two pounds. In the mornings I felt so worn out I would rather have taken a beating than get out of bed, and I was so languid and drowsy all day I almost fell asleep at the forge. I was just about down and out, and right on the point of giving up my job.

"Statements of Dartmouth people started me taking Tanlac and six bottles have put me on my feet again. My appetite is fine, I eat like a lumberjack and never have that tired, drowsy feeling any more. Nine hours solid work comes easy now, and I don't hesitate to give Tanlac a big boost."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

NEGRO PASTOR NAMED FOR U. S. SENATOR

Asbury Park, N. J., June 15.—The Rev. William S. Smith, negro pastor of the Monumental Baptist Church of Jersey City, was unanimously nominated for United States Senator from New Jersey by 200 delegates of the recently organized Lincoln Independent Republican Party convening here today. A committee was appointed to select a candidate for Governor.

The platform adopted condemns the Republican Party for its alleged failure to halt lynching atrocities, and arraigns Secretary of the Navy Denby for "insisting upon the Haitian Government remaining in the hands of the lawless elements."

The investigation of the Ku Klux Klan, the platform continues, "was suddenly suppressed and the diabolical Klan still permitted to murder and terrorize men, women and children, while the great Republican Party supinely maintains a passive attitude as to the conduct of these villains."

CALLED MODERN ST. FRANCIS

Charles Caleb Pierce Tramped and Preached Through California 42 Years—Welcomed Everywhere.

Memories of a host of picturesque figures in the history of California are evoked by the centennial of the missionary society of the Episcopal church, which was celebrated November 6. The mind goes back to that morning in January, 1848, when Jim Marshall picked up some bits of yellow metal in the Sacramento valley, and the cry of "Gold!" like the shot fired at Lexington, was heard round the world. The rush of the 49ers followed, and in the vanguard was Rev. Flavel Scott Mines, who erected the first church building on the Pacific coast, Trinity church, San Francisco, which was opened on October 28, 1849.

Probably no name has a more lasting place in California annals, however, than that of Charles Caleb Pierce, called by Bishop Moreland "a modern St. Francis," who, beginning his missionary career in 1861, devoted his life to the people of El Dorado county. Without private means and scornful to accept a salary, Pierce established headquarters in a rude parish church at Placerville. Sunday always found him there. Regularly each Monday morning he packed his bag with religious literature and "hit the trail." Six days a week, week in and week out, he walked over the county, averaging 60 miles each week, every house his home, a place at the table of whatever house he visited or a spare bed always being certain wherever he happened to be. He always traveled on foot. His charity was unbounded, and he was the friend and helper of all.

For 42 years he tramped and preached about El Dorado county, and in all that time he never left the county but twice, and on both occasions against his will. Then, March 15, 1903, the news flashed through the county, "Father Pierce is dead!" Universal mourning followed.

Hogs Plow Orchard.

Hogs take the place of plows and harrow in the cultivation of one of the best producing small apple orchards in Ontario. Most orchardists plow and replot and harrow and ditch the land between the rows of trees. J. W. Tuttle of Currie merely turns in a drove of hogs.

"When I bought my farm, four years ago," said Mr. Tuttle, "the orchard had been allowed to grow wild. I gathered only three bags of apples that fall. In the spring I sprayed and pruned the trees and turned 30 hogs into the orchard. They rooted for their living all summer."

"By fall every foot of soil had been turned up by their snouts. The land looked as if it had been plowed. And it had, for these four-legged plows had done a thorough job and had gone as deep as a plowshare. I gathered 32 barrels of apples that season. That was the direct result of plowing and manuring my land with hogs."

"Next year I got 35 barrels and the third year 205 barrels. This year I have more than 200 barrels."—Detroit News.

Human Bones of Vast Age.

Bones sufficient in number to form several skeletons and estimated to be at least 50,000 years old, have been discovered by a group of American research workers, headed by Prof. George Grant McCurdy of Yale museum, who have been investigating the cliffs not far from Angoulême, France, for several months.

During the winter these will be classified and distributed among Yale and other American museums, although valuable specimens will be kept at the La Quina museum, established by Dr. Henri Martin, owner of the properties on which the excavations have been made.

Hundreds of bones of animals of the same period also have been uncovered, most of which bear the marks of flint spears and scrapers, which were found in abundance throughout the region, thus classifying the relics as belonging to the Middle Stone age.

Headlines in Egypt.

Headline writers on English newspapers published in Egypt have their own peculiar difficulties. Every day they are faced with the words: Constantinople and Mediterranean. Indeed the problem of Mesopotamia was only settled during the war by the frequent use of Mesopot. Recently we note a capitulation in a Cairo daily to Alexandria—it appears, simply as Alex. Length, moreover, is not the only difficulty. The names themselves are misleading when read in distant cities. What can an American man-on-the-street do but laugh when he reads in type an inch high, "Greeks Fail to Get Angora." And a feminist anywhere finds diversion in another recent headline on a London dispatch which read "Home Unemployment." Alas, how little there is of it!—Christian Science Monitor.

Spare the Tree, He Warns.

The dangers of forest denudation and the need of increased timber production were outlined by James W. Toumey, dean of the School of Forestry, Yale university, in an address before the School of Citizenship of the Connecticut League of Women Voters. He declared an increasing scarcity of wood ultimately would result in a permanent shrinkage in many industries.

"Out of the original 822,000,000 acres of forests in this country, we have left only 137,000,000 acres," he said. "The last vestige of our virgin forests will disappear in 50 years."
