'To pay or not to pay?' has long been made a political question wherewith to catch votes. A few patriotic citizens are, says the report, in favor of setting up; but, from all we hear, they are about as few as the rightcous in Sodom and Gomorrah. The Federal Government ought to be able, if it is not, to reach these shabby defaulters. Virginia is believed to be well abla to pay in full. Better drop for the present the proud title at'Mother of Presidents ?" ceeded with a merciless arraignment amid with cheers from the Irish and Liberal benches, pointing his finger as he spoke at Balfour, who flushed ang-rily. The whole debate must measur-ably weaken the Government through-out the country, and the Liberals are more hopeful than ever about the de-sperate fight at Enfield. $140.
