Toronto, June 8.—The Liberal party in Ontario today has passed under the rod, but while the reports of the first returns show that the party will not be much worse off than in the former house, either in membership or ability. There are no striking features of the election except the return of eight Conservatives in Ontario, all the Temperance, Labor, Independent and various Liberal candidates being simply wiped out and hardly leaving a memory behind.
Rev. D. C. Hossack, Independent Temperance man in North Toronto, west down in the general run, but he polled a respectable vote and was not defeated by over 100 votes. One notable Liberal victory was the winning of the historic riding of South Oxford, where Donald Stewart, Ontario conservative, was defeated by "Thomas" Mayberry. In North Renfrew, Norman Reid, Liberal, retained his seat, defeating Alex. Morris, but this was probably due to the big lumbering firm's quarrel with the government.
Reid's majority was very large. There is talk of money having been spent in Kingston, but generally the election was fairly clean. That is, it is outstandingly clean. The Liberal candidate today had no more to offer than the principles of Liberalism. For more than a year the Liberal party has been in opposition. They gave the government every advantage of a small and unskilled government.
They now know what to expect. The principles of Liberalism are more
