Report of Inquiry Into Charges Preferred by Rev. John W. Wright

Police Found to Have Done Their Duty on Every Occasion.

Formance of his duty. That he did not see his duty as Reve. Wright and James had been drawn to his attention on which there seemed grounds for arrest. Corp.

That Rev. John W. Wright, Methofalsely as a heroic preacher with the gospel in one hand and a revolver in the other, and that the R.N.W.M.P. patrol of the Entwhistle district was as efficient as far as the law could go, are the conclusions which are

In consequence of a letter sent by Rev. J. W. Wright on May 20th to Attorney General Cross, pointing out the disorderly state of affairs in the town of Entwhistle and of a letter lished in the Edmonton Journal on May 30th, stating that the polic M.P. at Regina, appointed Richard B. Dean, superintendent commanding "E" division at Calgary to hold an inquiry into the charges made in the public press by Messrs. Wright and James.

Superintendent Dean opened the investigation at Entwhistle on July Some eighteen witnesses wer called to tell what they knew of law and order in Entwistle. With this evidence before him, Superintendent Dean found that the R.N.W.M.P., stationed at Entwistle, were entirely exonerated from the charges of in efficiency and conmivance laid against them, and that those who laid the charges were not justified in doing for his consideration was the manner in which Mr. Wright secured evi-dence for the charge of illegal sale of liquor in Entwistle. According to Mr. Wright's own evidence, he disguised himself and went to Hub Restaurant, feigning illness. He asked for whisky and was given a bottle by the owner of the restau rant, on the advice of Mr. Marshall He paid $1 for the the druggist. whisky, but the money was returned to him the next morning for charity's sake, as it was known that he had only $2.40 in his pocket. Mr. Wright claimed that he was so well known in Entwistle that it was necessary for him to disguise himself in order to obtain evidence. He said that h had seen men with bottles in their pockets and concluded that they contained liquor.

The Immorality Charge. As to the charge of immorality in the town, he said that diseased women were in the construction camps. This was found to be based entirely on hearsay, and to be untrue on the testimony Dr. Steele, contract doctor for the G. T. P. It is stated that Mr. Chadwick's evidence on this point was quite in contradiction. He said that he did not apprehend the girl and did not deport her and that his attention had been drawn to the girl while she was in Edmonton from another source. The girl had agreed to go back home to Minnesota and as far as he knew was to Minnesota and as far as he knew was at home before he even saw Mr. Wright.
