"Tommy" is Proud of His Khaki

Except in the case of a few privileged regiments, such as the Life Guards, soldiers must not discard their uniforms for private clothes when on leave. In these days the average "Tommy" is too proud of his Khaki to want to hide it in a barrack room locker, more especially if it has recently been Dry Cleaned.

NOTICE.

THE ANGLO-AMERICAN TELEGRAM COMPANY announces that it is prepared to accept Week-End Messages to Soldiers, Sailors and Nurses serving with the Expeditionary Forces in the United Kingdom or on the Continent, at a special rate of 5c per word (no minimum charge) subject to the following conditions:

1. All messages must have the prefix WSM written before the address.
2. When the persons are with Expeditionary Forces in France, Belgium, the messages will be sent post from London.

3. The following particulars considered by the British authorities to be essential, must be given as far as practicable:—

(a) Regimental rank and name,
(b) Squadron, Battery, or Company,
(c) Regiment or other unit,
(d) Expeditionary force concerned whether British, Canadian, Australian, etc., or, in case troops not with expeditionary force, name of place where stationed must be given.

The Anglo-American Company will also transmit free messages relating to wounded combatants, subject to the following conditions established by the authorities:—

1. The privilege is restricted to bona fide enquiries made by relatives concerning persons officially reported to have been wounded or killed. Messages of a social nature may not be included in the messages.

2. The messages must be handed to the Hon. Colonial Secretary, at St. John's, who will arrange their transmission over Anglo Cables. The prefix WSM must be written before the address.

3. The number of free messages which may be sent concerning any individual wounded combatant is limited to a maximum of three.

4. Persons offering such messages must present the original official receipt or information about the particular casualty to which the message relates, and each message sent must be checked on such original advice.

5. No free messages are allowed in respect of persons reported as slightly wounded.

6. The particulars specified in A. C. and D. above, must be given as far as possible in every case.
