OPENING GAME.

CUBS DEFEAT WANDERERS.

In the opening game at St. George's Field yesterday afternoon, the Cubs put it all over the Wanderers by a score of 10 runs to 3.

There was a very large attendance among those present being His Excellency the Governor and Miss Armorer Harris, accompanied by Lieut. Col. Knox-Niven, Capt. Campbell, A.D.C., American Consul J. S. Benedict, Dr. Grenfell and wife and the ladies of the W.P.A.

Following the March Past and some manoeuvres by about 500 of the soldiers, the first ball was thrown over the plate by Miss Harris, thus formally opening the season. While the class of ball was not up to the usual standard still the game furnished some exciting thrills. McIsaac, pitching for the Wanderers, while not up to expectations, did some good work but did not have the support of his team. McCrindle was in his usual good form and played a star game. Hall and Clouston worked well together, though Clouston was still a bit off. Clouston's throwing to bases was well nigh perfect and his three bagger in the third inning was a feature of the game.

During the afternoon refreshments were served by the ladies of the W.P.A., which considerably augmented the general proceeds, which amount to about $400.00 and all of which will be devoted to the W.P.A. fund.

Between the 4th and 5th innings the game was stopped for a short while to auction the ball thrown over the plate and autographed by Miss Harris. Hon. W. J. Higgins was the auctioneer and after some brisk bidding the ball finally went to that "King of Sports"—Mr. Mark Chaplin—for $25.00.

Both the C.L.B. and C.C.C. bands were in attendance and the music furnished by them greatly added to the pleasure of the spectators. The improved seating accommodation at either end of the grand stand was much appreciated by those present.

A detailed account of the game by innings follows:

FIRST INNING.

Cubs.—Phelan, first man up, walked; Canning caught out by McLeod; Phelan stole second; Duggan walked; Murphy struck out; Bell singled scoring Phelan; Duggan out at home plate. One run.

SECOND INNING.

Cubs.—Channing got to first on Smith's error; Clouston went to first, Channing got to third; Thomas was caught out by Jerrett; Hall caught out by Hartnett; Phelan walked; McIsaac's error scored Channing; Canning reached first; Duggan struck out. One run.

Wanderers.—In this inning Hall struck out Hartnett, McIsaac and Knight in succession. No runs.

THIRD INNING.

Cubs.—Murphy hit by pitcher took first; Bell went to first on Smith's error; Murphy going to third; Channing hit scoring Murphy; Clouston hit for three bases scoring Bell and Channing and reached home when McIsaac threw to third, no one being there to receive the throw; Thomas was caught out by McIsaac; Hall struck out; Phelan walked for the third time and stole second and third; Canning caught out by Britt. Four runs.

Wanderers.—Jerrett struck out; Smith walked and stole second and third; McCrindle walked, stole second and Smith scored on passed ball, McCrindle reaching third; Brien reached first on Hall's error; McCrindle scoring; Britt out at first, Brien going to third; McLeod was caught out by Clouston. Two runs.

FOURTH INNING.

Cubs.—Duggan caught out by Hartnett; Murphy out at first; Bell thrown out at first. No runs.

Wanderers.—Hartnett out at first; both McIsaac and Knight struck out. No runs.

FIFTH INNING.

Cubs.—Channing struck out; Clouston thrown out at first, McIsaac making a nice pickup and getting the runner; Thomas thrown out at first. No runs.

Wanderers.—Jerrett singled, and was thrown out stealing second; Smith walked; McCrindle struck out; Smith out stealing second. Clouston's throwing to second base was perfect. No runs.

SIXTH INNING.

Cubs.—Hall singled; Manning batting for Phelan, walked; Hall stole; Canning thrown out at first; Hall scoring; Duggan walked; Manning going to third; Murphy walked; Manning scored on passed ball; Bell struck out; Channing thrown out at first. Two runs.

Wanderers.—Brien safe on Hall's error; Britt hit by Bell, who doubled Brien up at first; McLeod singled; Hartnett singled. With men on third and second, Hall struck McIsaac out. No runs.

SEVENTH INNING.

Cubs.—Clouston singled and stole second; Thomas was caught out; Hall got a safe hit; Clouston went to third on wild pitch; Manning struck out; Canning singled scoring Clouston and Hall; Duggan singled; Murphy was caught out by McIsaac retiring the side. Two runs.

Wanderers.—Knight struck out; Jerrett singled; Smith was caught out by Duggan; McCrindle was thrown out at first. No runs.

The box score and averages will be published in to-morrow's issue.

LATE PARISH PRIEST OF FERRYLAND.

The Chapel bell is tolling
In Ferryland's quiet home,
The wild sea waves are rolling
And churning into foam,
The grey-haired man and matron
Are bowed in grief to-day,
And joy, the children's patron,
Has turned aside from play.

A good priest has departed,
They won't see his like again;
His smile and deeds kindhearted
Feel like sunshine after rain;
His ways were true and holy,
He was beloved by all,
The rich man and the lowly
Came responsive to his call.

Ab, Father, thou wert ever
A true and tender guide,
No heart from you could sever
When wandering by your side,
Distilling words within them
While travelling on life's road,
And your kind heart did win them
In a rich or poor abode.

Though troubled be the waters
Upon life's turbulent sea,
Yet Ferryland's sons and daughters
Shall never forget thee;
They loved you most sincerely
For forty years or more,
And you loved them most dearly
On your adopted shore.

Brave loving son of Erin
You labored day and night,
And told you were not fearful;
When doing what was right;
Rest, shepherd ever faithful,
Beneath our wave-washed strand,
For your deeds your flock are grateful
At dear old Ferryland.

Prominent English Churchman's Regard for Kaiser.

We take the liberty of publishing the accompanying letter which appeared in the London Daily Mail of May 23. It goes to show how difficult it must be in England for the Government to act in any way compatible with the feelings of the masses in the conduct of the war, when such church dignitaries as the Archbishop of York wishes to apotheosise the Madman of Europe.

THE ARCHBISHOP AND THE KAISER.

(From Major-General Sir Alfred Turner, K.C.B.)

To the Editor of the Daily Mail.
Sir,—In his recent sermon in New York the Archbishop of York counselled his hearers to think kindly not only of the German soldiers who have murdered, raped, pillaged, and destroyed wherever the foul foot has trodden, and who are confessedly lustful to excess by far their crimes and atrocities hitherto committed on the people of these islands if they succeed in invading us, but also to regard with tenderness their blood-thirsty and infamous ruler, who deliberately and designedly forced this war on the world. His words have created widespread indignation and to some extent astonishment that a man in his position should have so expressed himself.

For surprise, however, there is no room, as the following words, spoken by him at York in the earlier days of the war, show but too clearly what his grace's proclivities are. He said: "I resent exceedingly the gross and vulgar way in which the German Emperor or has been treated in the newspapers, and particularly in the comic papers. I have a personal memory of the Emperor very sacred to me, which makes me feel that it was with great reluctance that he felt himself compelled to accept the fact that his conduct and the conduct of his Ministers had involved himself in war with England."

Even the disclosures of Prince Lichnowsky have not, it appears, opened Dr. Lang's eyes to the never-to-be-forgotten turpitude of the Kaiser and his people. Doubtless Nero, Caligula, and Herod possessed sycophantic eulogists!

Household Notes.

There is no true economy in keeping articles that can never be used around the house.

Nuts stored for the winter must be carefully cleaned and kept free from dampness.

Save the rows of buttonholes from shirtwaists and stitch them as a fly onto other waists.

Cherries canned with the stones in have a somewhat finer flavor than those that are stoned.
