Household Notes.

Clothes hooks and nails become rusty in the camp cottage. Try fitting clothespins, "feet first," in holes bored for the purpose. Soak dishes which have contained sugary or gelatinous things in warm water, but those which have contained milk and eggs in cold water.

French fruit dressing is nice served with fruit salads. Lemon juice is used in stead of vinegar, and powdered sugar it used to sweeten it.

Mark your Mason jars and their tops with corresponding numbers, using wax crayons. You will not lose time in hunting for the right top. A delicious filling for sandwiches is made of tuna fish: Flake fish finely; chop a cup of mustard pickle and add to fish. Season with salt and pepper. To keep canned milk after the can is open shake a little milk up into the holes and cover with a piece of clean white paper. The can will then be air tight. If a thermos bottle does not carry as much water as you will need on your picnic, fill it with crushed ice and carry the water in an ordinary bottle.

A delicious frolic meal is Potato salad, eggs stuffed with ham, sliced seasoned stock, boiling hot. Pour into nut bread, lemonade, crackers, and sliced fruit.

Jellied bouillon: Soften 1 1/2 tablespoons granulated gelatine in a half cup of water. Dissolve in 3 cups well-seasoned stock, boiling hot. Pour into

When rubber boots are not in use, keep them from bending over by putting cylindrical pasteboard boxes in the legs. This permits a free circulation of air.
