

Makes a Family Supply of Cough Remedy

Really better than any other cough remedy, you probably don't know. Really and quickly prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably don't know that it is possible to get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is 16 ounces of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made and saves easily $2. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex."

Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

"The Great White Way" Coming

NEW PRODUCTION TELLS THRILLING STORY, INTERPRETED BY AN EXCEPTIONAL COLLECTION OF CELEBRITIES.

"The Great White Way," the Cosmopolitan Corporation's big motion picture, which graphically brings modern New York and Broadway to the screen in what is said to be one of the most interesting stories ever filmed, will have its premiere at the Nickel Theatre.

Interest in the picture has evoked an interest among patrons of the silent drama unparalleled in the history of photoplay presentation. It is evidenced by the tremendous demand for seats to the opening and for ensuing performances. This interest in the forthcoming production is nationwide according to Manager Kieley of the Nickel Theatre.

One of the big features is a realistic prize fight in which Pete Hartley, well known professional lightweight, battles Oscar Shaw, leading man of the picture. This scene includes such leaders in fight circles as Tex Rickard, who appears as promoter; Joe Humphreys, announcer; Johnny Gallagher, referee, and Jimmy Quigley, time keeper. Others who appear around the ring or in the training quarters at Madison Square Garden, are Irvin S. Cobb, Damon Runyon, "Bugs" Baer, "Kid" Broad and Tammany Young.

Another thrilling feature of "The Great White Way" is a big race track scene filmed at Belmont Park on Futurity Day. Earl Sande is one of the cast in this particular sequence.

In addition, the new picture brings to the screen for the first time the entire chorus of the famous "Ziegfeld Follies." The back stage mysteries of a big Broadway production are revealed to film fans from the time of the first rehearsal to the finished performance. For this particular episode, Ned Wayburn, stage director of a special and original miniature musical comedy.

Nickel Theatre Secures "In the Shadow of Whitechapel"

WILL BE SHOWN WITH "FIGHTING BLOOD" TO-MORROW.

Hepworth Films of London have produced "In the Shadows of Whitechapel," conceded to be the biggest of England's big melo-dramas. London and the provinces have taken it to their hearts and practically overnight this sensational motion picture production has attained a smashing success. The English press, without a dissenting voice, have endorsed, and actually labelled this the biggest of England's big melo-dramas. The musical settings are a joy to hear, old familiar music hall melodies made famous by the headlines of the variety of the Old Country are heard again for the first time in many years. A vivid picture of the slums with the joys and sorrows, love and laughter, their quaint mannerisms and quaint "lingo" which is presented in a true story of life in London. "In the Shadows of Whitechapel" will be shown at Nickel Theatre starting to-morrow.

The fourth episode of "Fighting Blood" will also be shown. In this week's story there are many novel surprises and some noted pugilists appear. Our hero is fast approaching popularity in the fighting ring and is each week adding speed. What ever you do, do not miss "Fighting Blood" to-morrow.

Besides the sixty athletes comprising the various M.G.C.A. teams who will be invited by the Association, a like number will be asked to attend from the outside, included in which will be several excellent speakers.

THE TURE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Epward, the crack French colt, in a test between races at Aqueduct yesterday, clipped off seven furlongs in 1:24 3-5. Jockey Haynes did not push the French racer.

HAVE DE GRACE, Md., Sept. 25.—Coming from far back in the stretch run, J. E. Griffith's Single Foot, bay son of Wrack and Virginia L., yesterday captured the twelfth running of the $10,000 Eastern Shore handicap, beating thirteen other juveniles, and earning $9,650 for his owner. The winner was the favorite. Single Foot, which ran third to Mother Goose and Stimulus in the Futurity at Belmont Park, packed out weight of 122 pounds and ran the six furlongs in 1:13 over a fast track. Fairbrother brought the colt home a neck in front of W. S. Kilmer's Saratoga Major, the latter being the same distance in front of W. J. Howard's Chink in a thrilling finish.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Saracen, Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt's speedy three-year old gelding, yesterday won the eighth running of the Arverne Handicap at the Aqueduct race course, running the six furlongs in 1:12 2-5, the fastest time of 1:11 2-5, three-fifths of a second slower than the track record for the distance. George Bablin had the mount, and the son of Hightime and Rush Box beat the Ramocas Stable's Zev by a length, earning $3,225 for the Fair Stable.

RENAULT-WILLS BOUT ABANDON-ED.

Promoter Johnston Unable To Get Negro Fighter To Sign Contract.

New York.—Negotiations for a heavyweight battle between Harry Wills, negro challenger for the world's title, and Jack Renault, Canadian heavyweight, who is established as a contender for the class honors, are temporarily off as far as Renault is concerned, according to the announcement yesterday of Leo P. Flynn, the Canadian's manager.

The match was sought as an attraction for the Yankee Stadium, or the Polo Grounds on Oct. 13, by matchmaker Jimmy Johnson, but because of Johnson's inability to obtain Wills's signature to a contract, Flynn said, the negotiations have been abandoned for the present. Flynn added that he will be ready to accept the match for Renault just as soon as Johnson presents a contract with Wills's signature affixed.

Renault, Flynn said, now is arranging for a three week's hunting trip, while waiting for his injured right hand to mend. The Canadian has been flooded with offers for bouts since his one-sided victory over Bartley Madden and has professed desire to meet Wills in a match to determine a rival for Champion Jack Dempsey. To all offers, however, Flynn said he has turned a deaf ear to date because of the prospects of a Renault-Wills battle. Now, the manager asserted, he will give careful consideration to all propositions submitted to him under a plan by which he hopes to keep Renault active against heavyweights throughout the country. Flynn added that Renault will not engage in bouts against any light-heavyweights, because he is convinced that Renault has established himself as a legitimate challenger for Dempsey.

Among the offers he has received, Flynn said, is one from Promoter Tom Goodwin, of Boston, who wants Renault to fight Jack Sharkey, Hub heavyweight, in Boston. Jack Doyle, Coast promoter, has offered Flynn a guarantee of $30,000 for five five round bouts for Renault in Vernon, Cal., with the privilege for Flynn of selecting the Canadian's five rivals. Oakland (Cal.), Portland (Ore.), and Middle West promoters also are bidding for Renault's services, Flynn said.

Best Local Talent in "Three Live Ghosts"

Local Artists Open Dramatic Season In Casino.

Lovers of the theatre will welcome the opening of the dramatic season by the appearance of St. John's favourites in Karl Trappnell's presentation of "Three Live Ghosts," which commences a short engagement in the Casino to-night. The play is brimful of interest from start to finish and those taking part have been thoroughly rehearsed and know their lines to perfection. A piece like "Three Live Ghosts" must have good players as it is by no means a simple manuscript; and therefore that accounts for the casts, consisting of such artists as A. E. Holmes, Capt. O'Grady, Karl Trappnell, Sandy Lawrence and Misses Ryan and Ryan, assisted by an exceptionally well-balanced supporting cast. Whilst the title would lead you to think the play to be a comedy, it is nevertheless a strong detective story, but when A. E. Holmes is there, you may depend there is some lively comedy. It's the greatest role he has ever played—just. Between the acts there are some delightful specialties that alone are well worth the admission. They consist of such well known performers as Arthur P. Cameron, Dan Delmar, Micky Michaels, Sandy Lawrence, A. E. Holmes and Karl Trappnell. It's a whale of a show; book your seats early.
