

Children, please remember to get your name and address into Majestic Theatre at once. A list of the leaders in the Contest will be shown soon.

The leading merchants of this City, in a very short time will display a banner similar to the one outlined below, upwards of one thousand children will co-operate with the Merchants and Theatre to make this contest the biggest sales effort, ever attempted in St. John's, and it is only by the utmost stretch of imagination that the Merchants of this city can conceive the results of a city-wide community campaign of this magnitude.

Jealousy Theme of Picture Story

AT THE NICKEL TO-MORROW.

So often one hears of the tragedies that develop from an unnatural jealousy that when one comes across a case where the conclusion is comedy rather than tragedy, it is invariably interesting and encouraging.

The story of "The Awful Truth" which comes to the Nickel Theatre starting to-morrow and featuring the lovely Agnes Ayres in the leading role, is a story based on jealousy.

While still on his honeymoon, young Norman Satterlee is seized with pangs of jealousy when he finds his wife's former friends still paying court to her. Returning from a business trip he finds his wife, through no fault of hers, in a compromising situation with another man and he demands that she divorce him.

This however, is not the end of the romance but rather the beginning. What follows is an absorbing love story in which the ex-husband is called to testify as to the good character of his former wife when she becomes engaged to another man.

Is it an unique theme and the result is a picture that is no end interesting and which gives Agnes Ayres an opportunity to be more attractive and more capable than in any of her numerous previous roles.

Paul Powell, whose long list of successes includes Mary Pickford's

"Pollyanna" and the recent Frank Wood's production, "Let Women Alone," directed "The Awful Truth," the screen version of which was written by Elmer Harris, the producer.

Hal Roach's Rascals will be seen in their latest "Our Gang Comedy" entitled "Jubilo Jr." together with a wonderful film showing "The Safety Suit" as demonstrated in our city by Captain Kelly. This picture is unusually interesting and should be seen by all.

MINARD'S LINIMENT FOR CORNS

Annual Sale

BISHOP SPENCER COLLEGE.

This afternoon Lady Allardyce will officially open Spencer Club's Annual Sale, at 3.30 p.m. The Club has recently painted and re-decorated the entire interior of the College at a cost of a thousand dollars, and have presented the institution with four hundred dollars worth of desks. The proceeds to-day also go towards the improvement of this excellent Girls' College. The new members of the staff this year are Miss Thomas, Physical Instructor of Queen's College who replaces Capt. Elwin Nash as officer commanding No. 1 Spencer Girl Guides' Company and has charge of the gymnastics, dancing and athletic sports. Miss Maud Gould, B.A., is the new specialist in kindergarten methods. Miss Amy Gould, B.A., is the French teacher, and comes highly recommended having taken a special term of study in Paris. Miss Carmichael, M.A., of Edinburgh University, who had been on the staff a few years ago, has also rejoined the College and her old friends are specially delighted to have her assistance again. The other new teacher is Miss Collins, A.A., who has great experience in Newfoundland schools. There are about 260 children on the roll this month. Captain Thomas is now organizing the College Field Hockey team in order to afford the girls good healthy outdoor exercise on fine afternoons during the fall. A letter from Olive Moore, an ex-pupil, now studying at the Delta Collegiate Institute, reflects great credit on the standard of teaching at Spencer College, when she writes, "I am far-ther advanced in my lessons than most of the girls of my own age here, and I must thank Spencer for the good training I received and now I appreciate it."
