proud of their philanthropic citizen and his magnificent gift.

Some time ago J. E. Brown, of Kingsville, got into a discussion with somebody through the columns of the Amherstburg Echo and the proprietors of the newspaper refused to publish all of the articles unless remunerated. Brown agreed to this, but when a bill of $60 was presented he refused to pay it. The case was heard at Amherstburg, and resulted in a verdict for the plaintiffs. plaintifis.

Hume, the 6-year-old son of W. A. Phillips, $1. Thomas, had a narrow escape Saturday afternoon from being burned to death. The child had been playing with a number of other children, but either wandered off a little distance by himself or was leit alone by the others, and coming across a match no doubt endeavored to light it as he had seen the others doing in putting off firecrackers, when his clothes caught fire, and in a moment were in a blaze. He ran for home, and was seen by a Mrs. McKenzie, who called for help, and, running to him, quenched the flames by rolling him in a blanket. He was badly burned, however, over eight inches square of his back and under his arm. The burn is quite deep over the region of the heart, yet the medical attendant is hopeful of the results. Theodore Snively, Malahide, who was bailed to appear at the June Sessions on a charge of seducing Esther Lee, a girl under 16 years of age, and against whom a givil suit for $2,000 is pending for the same offense, was again arrested at Gravesend Saturday evening on a warrant charging him seducing Alta Lee, a girl 13 years of age.

St. Thomas, May 31.—Pioneer Conclave, No. 1, K. S. F., of Hamilton, is dissatisfied with the decision of the judges at the competition drill in this city on May 24, in which they were awarded fourth place. Ald. Doggett, colonel of the I. O. O. F. cantons of this district, received a letter from Mr. W. R. Trebbick, of Hamilton Conclave, this morning, saying that they had not been treated fairly by the judges, and insinuating that they would like to meet Victoria Canton, No. 5, I. O. O. F., of this city, who took the first prize in the competition, and compete for any amount. In reply to this a challenge to the Hamilton conclave for a match for $500 a side has been issued on behalf of Victoria Canton. Victoria Canton.

Glenelg Patrons picnicked at Traverston, and Euphrasia Patrons at Cherry Grove and Kimberley. The picuie at Kimberley was a great success. Patrons from Griersville, Epping, Heathcote and Duncan all poured into the lovely Queen's Valley and soon the quiet little village assumed a very animated appearance. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. Shooting, fishing, games and speaking were the chief attractions, not to speak of the ladies and the delightful morsels which their baskets contained. Short and pointed addresses were delivered by ex-Warden Bro. Gilray, reeve of Euphrasia, County Organizer Bro. J. H. Alexander, Bro. W. Stuart, deputy reeve, and the chairman, Bro. inaugurated by the ladies, was held in the temperance hall, Nairn, on the evening of May 20. W. H. Taylor occupied the chair and introduced with creditable ability a well selected programme. The first to follow the chairman's address was the Nairn Choir with the indefatigable song, "The Farmer Feeds Us All." The Adelaide "Wide Awakes" were present and strung out such melodious strains as elicited an encore. The readings by Miss Davidson were worthy of much praise as also the instrumental selections by Miss Slater and the Misses Singer and Potter. Mr. Smith favored the meeting with a song; B. J.
