Lead by Twenty-five Points. The indignity heaped upon the league leaders at home would have been quite sufficient in itself. Philadelphia won two games while Detroit was losing one aggravates the situation considerably. As a result of the day's transactions the Mackmer are 11 points nearer to Detroit than they were before vesterday's contests began; Detroit's lead in figures is just 25 points, slight when it is considered that beginning tomorrow the Tigers will have to face the next best bets the race for the pennant, at Phila-

Tossed Away Chances. Detroit should have captured vescerday's contest from the Browns in pitcher-By Oberlin: Stahl. Struck outwalk. An abundance of over-confidence, caused by the easy victory of Monday, resulted in the Tigers tossing away early chances to win with poor base-running, in the expectation that there would be plenty more to fol-herein the Champions erred. "Bill" Bailey's southpaw grew more dangerous as the contest waxed older, while the Browns' fortunate bunching of a couple of hits off Killian in the ninth stood them in good stead - in fact, gave them the victory, when the battle ended.
