NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Although recessions after the opening were followed by a brisk upturn, prive movements later tended sharply downward, and losses ranging from 1 to 3 points were sustained in nearly all the stocks dealt in. The bulk of the selling came from the *trading element on the floor. The greatest pressure was in Union Pacific, which yielded about 2 points. The buying on the recessions was without much significance.

An Action Between Londoners Over the Sale of a Patent.

Mr. William Wilson, of this city, as commenced an action against Mr. George B. Deacon, another Londoner, for the recovery of $1,250, which he alleges is due him as commission on the sale of certain patents on a carpet sweeper. The case will be heard at the non-jury sittings of the high court, which will commence at the courthouse on Monday next. Wilson claims that he sold the patents to a man named Hessin, of Toronto, who paid $5,500 to Deacon for the rights. The deal was put through two years ago, according to the statement of claim. Mr. George S. Gibbons is acting for the plaintiff, and Meredith & Fisher for the defence.
