Shoe Workers Claim Voting Was Illegal

Names Were Orly Partially Given Out Prior to Election.

[Canadian Press.]

Montreal, June 17. - The delegation from Brocton to the convention of the International Boot and Shoe Workers' Union of America meeting here, having been protested against, evidence has been gathered and laid before the meeting of the credentials commit-

The protest arose over an alleged violation of constitutional rules in the election of delegates to the Montreal convention from Brockton Local, No. 100. It appears that there were seventeen candidates, of whom eight were chosen. Prior to the election it was decided to print sample ballots for purely educative purposes, owing to the large number of foreigners in the town. It is claimed that similar lists containing the names of only 20 of the candidates were printed for distribu-Cleared: Louisiana, tion among the foreigners, who were thus led to neglect altogether the lemaining five candidates.

Mrs. Violet McKenna Asphyxiated Herself in London Flat, [Canadian Press.]

London, June 17. - "Suicided while temporarily insane" was the verdict of the coroner's jury at Westminster on the body of Mrs. Violet McKenna Hudson, of Chicago, who was found dead from asphyxiation by gas in the kitchen of her flat near Victoria station on Sunday.

The evidence indicated that she was in financial straits. She borrowed some money on Saturday last in order to cable to the Great Northern Trust Company in Chicago for money. She left a will scribbled on an envelope bequeathing a thousand "lbs" to an Oxford graduate named George George Herbert testified that he saw Mrs. Hudson on Sunday morning and she seemed quite cheerful.

Shopping a Pleasure At This Store

Notice the difference between the stuffiness and heat of the street and the temperature of this store—a ditference at least 10 to 15 degrees. "How fine it is in here" is the common remark heard from customers on hot days. Winter things are out of sight and every floor is in summer garb.

There is a pleasure, too, in "just wandering about" without being stared at or urged to buy something. Do your own choosing and thinking if you see what you need. It will please us to help you to it.
