HIGHLY HONORED BEFORE

DEPARTURE FOR LONDON [Special to The Advertiser.] INGERSOLL, Nov. 15 .- Mr. and Mrs. James Comiskey, who for many years have been highly respected residents of North Oxford, will shortly take up their residence in London. One night, number of their friends who, after spending a delightful evening, presented them with handsome gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Comiskey received two chairs, upholstered in leather, Mr. Comiskey a gold headed cane, Mrs. Comiskey a cut glass berry bowl, and Miss Comiskey a pearl handled parasol. Plans are being laid by the Scouts for a very active season. It is hoped to materially increase the membership and very interesting work is on the Because of conditions occasioned by the war, the Borden Milk Company have decided to temporarily close their plant here. The farmers, however, will not suffer any financial loss as provision has to surrounding cheese factories. It is expected the changed conditions will last until the first of the year. Saturday's market was one of the largest of the season. All offerings were plentiful and the demand generally was brisk. Eggs advanced to 35 cents per dozen, but there was little change in other prices.

The question of extending the temporary agreement with the gas company will likely come up for consideration by the council on Monday night. It has frequently been referred to of late, and it is understood, a letter has been received by local officials of the company, Fire, life, announcing the company's willingness to renew the agreement for three months.
