HYATT AVENUE AID HOLDS BERRY FETE

Perfect Weather, Bountiful Supper, Good Program Contribute To Success.

With perfect weather and the best day in all the season for strawberries the Hyatt Avenue Aid held Tuesday evening by the Ladies' Aid of Hyatt Avenue Methodist Church in the Sunday school and church grounds was an unqualified success.

A bountiful supper with all manner of substantial things and quantities of strawberries and cream was served at long tables spread in the schoolroom, beautifully decorated with spring, under the conversation of the aid president, Mrs. T. Dickson.

Out on the lawn an inviting booth was erected, where ice cream, cake, candy, cold drinks and other goodies were dispensed by Mrs. R. E. Elliott, assisted by Mrs. A. E. Tutt, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Burns and Mrs. J. H. Moyer.

Mrs. H. E. Stelk arranged the program, which was a delightful feature of the occasion, including readings by Mr. Edward Stanley, Lucan, and Miss Mortimer; solos by Mrs. Albert Barrows and Master Mervin Turner, boy soprano, Master Jack Dean, and numbers by a girls' quartet from Hale Street Methodist Church. Rev. Johnston McCormick acted as chairman. During the evening Harold Pudney's orchestra, stationed outdoors, discoursed an evening program.

WITH THE BRIDES

GIVLIN-SHINE.

A pretty wedding took place in St. James' Catholic Church, Searford, at 9 a.m., Monday, June 19, when Margaret, daughter of Mrs. John Shine, was united in marriage to Mr. Owen Givlin, son of Mr. John Givlin, of Santa Rosa, California. The bride looked charming in a white satin gown. She wore the traditional veil and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was led to the altar by her mother, Mrs. John Shine. Mrs. O'Connell played Lohengrin's wedding march. Miss Hughes, who acted as bridesmaid, was groomed in mauve and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The nuptial mass was sung by Rev. J. M. Eckert of New York State. The groom was supported by Mr. George Holland of St. Columban. Mr. and Mrs. Givlin left in the afternoon for California.

CLANCY-LA VOIE.

A wedding of much interest to the people of Western Ontario took place at the Church of the Sacred Heart, Paris, Saturday, June 19, at 10 o'clock, when Albena Eleanor, youngest daughter of Mrs. E. La Voie, was united in marriage to Mr. John Clancy, of Walkerville, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Clancy of London, England. Rev. Father Holden officiated. The bride, who was given away by her brother, looked charming in her beautiful wedding dress of ivory chiffon, simply draped, her veil of Brussels net arranged in cap effect, with a wreath of orange blossoms, and white leather. She carried a shower bouquet of Sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Wm. Ferguson, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, wearing a smart gown of jade georgette and

Cynthia Greys'

NOBODY'S CAKE RECIPE.

Dear Cynthia—It has been such a long time since I slipped a note into your Mail-Box. Do you happen to have a little spare room for this one? I sure enjoy reading your letters, but never saw a remedy for goitre or thick neck, but I am glad to say, I have found one. A very simple remedy, guaranteed to cure, and mine is nearly all disappeared. Such a change in a person as well and it is a harmless treatment. If anyone would like it my address is with Miss Grey. I am also sending a cake recipe. It is so easily made.

Lightning Cake.
Two cups flour, scant 2 teaspoons baking powder, 4 tablespoons melted butter, a little salt. Break egg in cup, fill up with sweet milk, put all together and bake 3 minutes. Grease a tin and bake in moderate oven. A teaspoon of coloring makes it look nice, a cup of sugar if icing is not used.

May I come again sometime, Miss Grey? Am sending my love. I will sign my name. NOBODY.

I am glad you have found a remedy for your goitre. Nobody, and hope you will be the means of giving someone else relief. Thanks for the hospital note and the cake recipe. We will be looking for a letter from you soon again. Nobody.

What Women Are Accomplishing in London.

APPRECIATE FLOWERS.
Quantities of beautiful flowers donated by the members of the Horticultural Society, filled the rooms of the House of Commons on Tuesday evening with fragrance and beauty, delighting the hearts of the inmates and the sisters in charge of the home. Warmest appreciation of the lovely gift has been expressed.

GIVES $25 TO W. C. A.
A much appreciated donation towards the general work of the Women's Christian Association was a check for $25 received on Tuesday from Mr. Percy Millman.

HOLD ROSE FETE.
Knox Church Women's Association is holding a rose garden fete Tuesday evening, June 27, on the lovely grounds of their president, Mrs. John Stevenson, 103 Elmwood avenue.

BUY NEW "VAC" CLEANER.

A most successful business venture for the Ladies' Aid of Adelaide Street Baptist Church was the rummage sale recently held, when the sum of $197 was realized, according to report presented by Mrs. R. Greenside at the June meeting of the church. The last until the autumn, with a part of the proceeds a new vacuum cleaner will be purchased for the church. Mrs. John McNeil, Mrs. D. H. Gillies and Miss Margaret Morran were named a purchasing committee. It was decided to hold a picnic at Springbank on June 28.

Mrs. T. McIntyre presided, and a letter was read from L. McIntyre, president of the Adelaide Street B. Y. F. U., expressing warm appreciation for the assistance given by the Ladies' Aid in entertaining the delegates to the Ontario and Quebec convention recently held in the city.

ST. LUKE'S GARDEN FETE.

A delightful program has been arranged by the Ladies' Aid of St. Luke's Church, Broughdale, for the garden party to be given Thursday, June 22. A five-piece orchestra will also provide excellent music. The grounds at Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson's home in Raymond avenue, will be gayly decorated for the occasion and the attractive booths will be in charge of the following: Homecooking, Mrs. Bickley, assisted by Mrs. Bowman, Mrs. William Wyatt, Mrs. Dodd, Miss Adeock, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Gadsby and Mrs. Ward; sewing, Mrs. Geissler and Mrs. Tomlinson; soft drinks, Mrs. Dickerson and Mrs. Blackall; candy, Mrs. Chamberlain and Miss Stockwell; fish pond, Miss Stockwell and Mrs. Auden; tickets, Mr. Gordon Flannigan. The arrangements are in charge of the president, Mrs. George Bowman.

ADDED CONVENERS.

The following conveners were omitted from the list given for the garden party, to be held at St. Michael's Church, Tuesday, June 27: Mrs. William Bell, convener of the fish pond; Mrs. Frank Walsh, in charge of the program; Mr. William Connor, of the tickets.

CLOSE WITH VERANDA TEA.

Mrs. John Hosie, president of the Hale Street Mothers' Club, entertained the members of the executive this week at a pleasant little veranda tea at her home, when business was wound up for the season and arrangements were made to adjourn until September. Much gratification was expressed over the success of the community garden party held in the school grounds last week, when in the neighborhood of $80 was realized for the objects which the mothers' club is assisting.

HEMORRHOIDS

Do not suffer another day with itching, bleeding, or protruding piles or hemorrhoids. No surgical operation required. Dr. Chase's Ointment will relieve you at once and afford lasting benefit. 60c a box, all leaders of druggists. Chase's Ointment, Limited, Toronto, Canada.

OFFERS SLIPS.

Dear Miss Grey—I am coming again to the Mail-Box. I saw where I might help a little. If I had Coppleston's address I could send her some slips.

I see where Dandelion asks about whitewashing straw hats. I have used peroxide to whiten some. I feel sorry for May having lost her mother; she may have my address if she cares to write to me. I will try to answer her letter. Am sending a pattern of crocheted lace, perhaps someone would like it. I am also sending two recipes that are very good: Brown Drop Cakes—1/2 cups brown sugar, 1/2 cup molasses, 1/2 cup lard or other fat, 1 cup of boiling water, 2 teaspoons ginger, 1 teaspoon mixed spices, fruit and nuts if desired. Flour for a stiff batter: Drop from spoon on greased tins; bake in moderate oven.

Ginger Cookies.—Two eggs, 1 cup sugar, 1 cup molasses, 1 tablespoon ginger, 1/2 teaspoon soda, a little nutmeg, flour to make stiff; roll and bake.

I noticed you had mailed the seeds I asked for, but they must have got lost in the mail somewhere as I didn't get them.

Coppleston's address is not on our family list, but if she sees your offer of slips I am sure she will take advantage of it. I am sorry if you did not receive the seeds. Thanks for the recipes, which sound like very good ones, also for the crocheted pattern.

TO DESTROY BEDBUGS.

Dear Miss Grey,—Will you kindly print in your column of The Advertiser something that will kill bedbugs? Will await an early reply and will sign myself PERPLEXED.

The following remedies have appeared in the Mail-Box: 1—Get an ounce of corrosive sublimate (deadly poison), dissolve in about 1/2 pint of either turpentine or wood alcohol, and apply to beds and walls with a small paint brush, or to any cracks in the woodwork where bugs could get in. After applying fill cracks with common hard soap. If this remedy is applied once a week for several weeks it will rid you of the pests. 2—Another method is: Apply with tree sprayer enough gasoline to half fill sprayer, 10 cents worth of oil of cedar, and 10 cents worth of carbolic acid (poison). Spray beds and all cracks in the room, or any place where they are likely to be. If this is applied occasionally they will soon disappear. 3—Close all the rooms where these pests are, and take in a red hot brick on a piece of iron and put 10 cents worth of cayenne pepper on the top. Be sure and get out of the room as quickly as possible, close the door tight so the bugs will have to stay in and do not enter again until four hours have elapsed. Quiet Observer—Many thanks for the forty cents towards our hospital fund.

TO CLEAN HATS.

Dear Miss Grey,—I have been a silent reader of your page for some time, but at last I have found courage to write. I enjoy reading the letters very much. Please answer the following questions: What could I use to clean a white Panama hat? Could any of the readers supply me with an old song entitled "The Battle of Alma"? Please criticize my writing. I wrote once before but failed to see my letter in print, so will close as B. 4. MARY.

One of the rules of the Mail-Box is to sign your name and address. Mary.

Mary that was why your former letter did not appear in print. The rules of the Mail-Box are: (1) Write on one side of paper only. (2) Sign your name and address. (3) Write with pen and ink. The directions for cleaning Panama hats appeared a week or so ago, but I will print them again, and those wishing them may clip them out for future reference. Rub with a cloth dipped in peroxide, repeating until clean, or mix a teaspoonful of powdered sulphur with the juice of a lemon. Brush this into the hat with a stiff brush, and when clean rinse with water. Another method is to soak white cornmeal in benzine and rub well into the hat with a soft clean cloth, brushing off when dry. A teaspoon of oxalic acid (poison) to a pint of lukewarm water will safely clean a Panama. Leghorn, Milan and other light straw hats. You write a good, legible hand, Mary.

MEET FIRST TIME SINCE FEBRUARY

Meeting this week for the first time since last February, the Mothers' Allowance Board of Middlesex County dealt with a number of new applications, four of which were recommended to the provincial commission to be passed upon. In one case a small grant was recommended to supplement the present income of the family, owing to special conditions. The county now had some 35 families benefiting by the mothers' allowance provision.

Major T. J. Murphy of the provincial commission and Mrs. R. M. Graham, investigator for London and district, were present during the session to give information and advice. The board consists of John Stewart, chairman; Mrs. Malcolm Grey, Lobo; J. D. Drummond, M.P., Alton; J. Malcolm Macpherson, Glenora; and Miss Mary Grant, secretary.

Mrs. Joseph Marshall entertained the members of the Women's Christian Association at her quaint country home, "Cedar Terrace," London Township, the end of last week, the guests hearing with interest the story of the place as they enjoyed the lovely lawns and gardens. "Cedar Terrace," according to the hostess, is one of the oldest, if not the oldest house, in the city or vicinity, being built in the early thirties. Mrs. Harry Marshall and Mrs. Marshall-Hawkins assisted the hostess at the tea hour.

Miss Florence Widden was the hostess on Monday evening at a charmingly arranged miscellaneous shower at her home in Wortley road, in honor of Miss Mary Rouson, whose marriage to Mr. Sydney G. Elliott takes place this month. Much excitement prevailed while the bride-to-be followed the white ribbons that led to the hiding places of many dainty and useful gifts. After the presents had been admired the remainder of the evening was very pleasantly spent in music. A dainty supper was served.

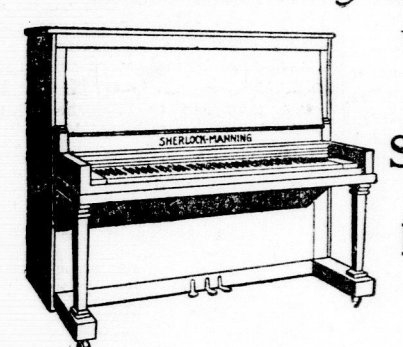

Another delightful affair in honor of Miss Peggy Gemmill, whose marriage takes place this week, was the tea and recipe shower given by Miss Catherine Campbell at her home in St. George street Tuesday afternoon. The tea table, decked with peonies, was presided over by the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. John Gemmill. The guests included Misses Rose Saunders, Geraldine Webster, Winifred Pearson, Katharine Sabine, Tenie Tilden, Gertrude Fraser, Marjorie Dexter, Eileen Boomer, Beatrice Taylor, Margaret Reid, Mary Granger, Edith Jameson and Kathleen James.
