Intémperance in the French Metropoli Paris Letter in San Francisco Chronicle. The kingdom of Belgium has a popula HALL'S VEGETABLE tion of over 5,000,000. - Paris has popula Hair Renewer.

Seldom dees a popular remedy win such a strong hold upon the public confidence as has HALL'S HAIR RENEWER. The cases in which thickly over the capital as you ever saw them in a Western mining town; they exist in such numbers that to:day there is in Paris one "absinthe mill" for every 100 souls; Yes, there are about 25,000 drinking places of all sorts in this place. Without taking into consideration the terrible ab-sinthe, the flery cognac, the strong char-treuse, the nasty, flat beer and a lot of other intoxicating tipple, the annual con-sumption of wine in Paris alone exceeds 200 quarts per head. There are sections it has accomplished a complete restoration of color to the hair, and vigorous health to the color to the mar, and righton best in to the scalp, are innumerable. Old people like it for its wonderful power to restore to their whitening locks their original color and beauty. Middle-aged people like it because it prevents them from getting bald, keeps dandruff away, and makes the hair grow thick and strong. Young ladies like it as a dressing because it gives the hair a beau-tiful glossy lustre, and enables them to dress it in whether for the With. Thus it is the it in whatever form they wish. Thus it is the favorite of all, and it has become so simply because it disappoints no one.

At Winnipeg last week a prize-fight was fought between Ed. McKeown of the Northwest and Maloney of Ottawa, for $100 a side, revised Queensberry rules. McKeown punished Maloney severely in the first round, but the latter plucked up courage in the second round and retaliated gamely In the third round McKeown got in a sledge-hammer blow, which stunned Maloney so badly that he was unable to put in an appearance in the proscribed ten seconds. The fight was awarded to Mc-Keown, who subsequently offered $50 to any one who would stand before him seven rounds. A man named Prendergast accepted, and was badly beaten.
