WINNIPEG, Man., June 16 .- A despatch from the camp of General Strange, dated June 13, and Straubenzie yesterday, announces the arrival in camp of twenty Big Bear, along with the priests who induced them to surrender. Each Indian surrendered two Winchester rifles. It was organizations at a rate that public opinion learned from one of the redskins that they were with the Crees under Big Bear in the fight at Frenchman's Butte. They say that the Indians had gradually stolen away from the rifle pits, being afraid that Capt. Steele was going to flank with his cavalry. When the troops ceased firing, there were only thirty Indians in the pits, Little Poplar and Wandering Spirit were the leaders. They express hatred of Big Bear and say they only joined in consequence of him having hostages. Col. Williams with the Midlanders are camped five miles south of General Strange's camp and General Middleton is on his way to Frog Lake.

Riel is still closely guarded. He rises at six, and of late has apparently taken a cheerful view of the situation. He never leaves his cell, except when taking exercise in the open air morning and afternoon. His new religion is uppermost in his thoughts, and when not engaged at correspondence he gives himself up to earnest devotions.

The civic authorities have decided to present an address to Gen, Middleton on his return from the front.

Among the wounded who have arrived here are: Capt. Lazier, Midland; Sorgt. Aikens, Midland; Privates Quigley, Gray, Foley and Marshall, 10th Royals; Privates Powell and McLean, Midland.

Notes From the Northwest.

The following telegram was received yesterday from Sergt. Grundy in charge of the car for the 10th Grenadiers:

BATTLEFORD, June IS.—Just arrived here with volunteers supplies, delivered to Queen's Own rifes and will proceed with balance to Fort Pitt.

A correspondent relates an interesting event of the battle of Batoche. Sergt. Frank Jackes of No. 3 company 90th battalion (a former Eglinton boy) having conveyed a wounded comrade to the zareba found that in their absence at the fighting line supplies, etc., had arrived in camp. Among these were cigars for each company. Sergt. Jackes secured those for his men, and lighting one and packing the rest on his back returned to the trenches. The sight of a genuine cigar in the sergeant's mouth completely paralyzed the boys of No. 3, and each clamored for just one puff, offering various sums from 5 cents to 25 cents a pull; but all were made happy by the boxes being passed down the line. Each one laid down his rifle, lighted his cigar, lay back in the trenches and enjoyed his smoke. Then all resumed firing with a will.

A Battisford despairs asknowledged the receipt of four letters from Riel, one of which he said he had left in his tent near his reserve. A party of police, taking with them Poundmaker's brother-in-law, orders Poundmaker, if Battleford has not already been captured, to capture it at once, and kill all the white people there. The letter then goes on to say that when that has been done, Riel will attack and destroy the volunteers and join Poundmaker at Battleford. The letter is signed by Riel himself.

Will resist extradition.

OTTAWA, June 16 .- There is considerable likeliheed of the wine and beer amendment to the Scott act being carried by the house Thursday. There has been a change of true feeling of the country on the act is.
