Boston, light-weight champion of America, and Jimmy Carroll of Holyoke, champion light-weight of New England, had a sparing exhibition at North Adams on Saturday night. In the third round both men began to get mad, and each tried hard to get in a knock-down blow. Both men were anxious for another round, but were not allowed to come together. The fight was a draw. Carroll came forward and sald he would wager any amount from $100 up that he could whip any man in America, weighing 130 pounds, Fraziar professor.

Moved by Mr. McPherson, seconded by Mr. Sterling, that each club subscribe $20, $10 of which to go to the pennant and $10 to the secretary's expenses.

Several resolutions were adopted cancelling games on account of irregularities, managers playing men not properly released. The constitution was got up in a hurry and was faulty. After cancelling a hurry and was faulty. After cancelling the standing of the league or lessening the standing of the league or lessening complaints it was decided that the Clippers were entitled to the pennant.
