New Schooner Launched To-day.

This is the day set for the launching of the new tern schooner built by Capt. N. V. Munro, and the workof the new tern schooler built by Capt. N. N. Munro, and the workmen's hammers are now busy driving the wedges that will force ner into the water. She has this morning been inspected by Capt. John H. Benson, streepor for the American Bureau of shipping, and new operating the Marine rativacy at Metayhan, and will probably receive her class for a term of not less than twelve years. The is 125 feet long, 32 feet preacth of beam and 11 ft. depth of hold, staunchly built and first class in every particular. She is considered as one of the finest vessels of her class ever built here. As she glides from the ways to-day she will be christened the "Adonis."

She will probably lay at the dock here for a few days till thoroughly litted.

New Houses.

sidences of F. R. Fay and W. A. Chesley are now about completed and together with that of E. C. Hall described in a late issue, add greatly to the appearance of Granville street the new home of Mr. Fay, is built in the colonial style of architecture,

The ground size is 28x40, and it is built over a cellar 8 ft. 4 inches in depth, and fronted by a handsome verandah 8x28 ft. On the first floor are large reception hall, parlor, diming room, butler's pantry and kitchen, with large pentry adjoining. The parlor is finished in white enamel, and the dining room is white oak. A striking feature of the interior is the two massive gethic pillars between the reception hall and parlor. A handsome hrick staircase leads from the hall to the second floor, which is occupied by five bedrooms, with spacious closets, and a splendidly appointed bath room. The attic is devoted to a billiard room and one bedroom. The arrangement and appearance of the building is quite out of the ordinary, and gives an impression of elegance and convenience. The building is heated by hot air and lighted by electricity. The work has been in charge of Mr. Stephen Porter, and reflects great credit on Fis ability as a builder. The furnishings and stock generally the furnishing ion both workmen and owner loud in their praises of the qual-of the stock provided by them, same firm supplied the stock for now about completed for Mr. W. Chesley at the corner of Granville and Washington sts. This handsome structure is two stories, over a basement 7½ feet deep. A verandal, ten feet wide extends across the front with a balcony ronting the second story. An octagon tower enlivens the style of the exterior and gives additional space to the large halfs inside. On the opposite side to the tower is a large bawindow, and the front has transom the large halls inside. On the opposition window, and the front has transom lights of beautiful art glass.

On the first floor of the interior is found a spacious hall, front and back parlors, dining room, kitchen and pantry. The front stairway is of oak and the finish throughout is of native oak and hemlock. On the second floor is a wide landing or upper hall, from which a glass door ovens or the balcony and there are beside four bedrooms, numerous closers and a modern bath room. The house will be heated by a hot air furnace and lighted by electricity. A. C. Charlton was the master builder, and an inspection will sufficiently at test the merit of his work.

o'clock, the receple of Lower East Pubnico distinctly felt a slight earthquake shock which shook the doors of their houses and rattled the windows.
The same conditions were noticeable in Yarmouth, several residents of Main street having felt the shock.
There was no wind, yet doors and windows rattled vigorously. The unusual nature of the occurrence has caused considerable comment.

The death of Mrs. Eliza Chute, widow of the late Abel Chute, took place at Peterboro, N. H., Sept. 15th, of cancer. Mrs. Chute was 59 years of age, and leaves two sons, Fred and Samuel, and one daughter, Mina. The remains arrived here Thursday p. m. and were taken in charge by undertaker W. E. Reed, and removed to the rooms of his establishment. The funeral took place the following day, Fr;day. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Hills, interment being at the Chute family burying ground.

Dear Sir.—The finest three masted schooner ever built on the shores of St. Many's tay is now nearly completed, and in a few days will be manched.

She has been built by the Hon. A. H. Comeau, under the supervision of Mayor Shafter of Bridgetown. The managing owners will be Messrs. Pickl's & Mills, of Annapolis.

This schooner is fastened throughout with galvanized iron, and her bottom is sheathed with metal. All the iron work on the masts, deck, etc., is galvanized, which gives the vessel a handsome appearance. She is fitted with all the latest improvements that can make a vessel success and seawort. And easy to handle.

Her heal is 126 feet, and 155 feet over all. Lepth of hold 12 feet. Beam 22 feet 6 incher, and is of 325 tons. She has being classed A. 1., 12 years. Her masts are of Oregon Pine and are 54 feet in length. The topmasts are 55 feet long.

The cabins and state rooms are finished in oak and present a very handsome eppearance. The berths are larger and more roomy than those generally found on sailing vessels.

LITTLE-MILLETT.

A very interesting event took place in e Baptist church, Clementsvale, at the baptist church, chemensvale, at eleven o'clock on the morning of Sept. 16th, when Laura May Millett, one of our fairest flowers, and Ira Dwight Little were united in holy matrimony. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Balcon, the ring ceremony being used.

J. II. Balcon, the ring ceremony being used.

The bride, who looked charming in a going away costume of blue cloth, entered the church on the arm of her brother in law. Mr. Forbes Tupper, white Mencelsohu's beautiful wedding march was prayed by Miss Minnie Potter. The groom was preceded up the aisle by the two whers, Masters Roy Balcom and Vernon Brown.

The bride was very popular and will be greatly missed by her many warm friends. The church was beautifully triumed for the occasion, the happy couple standing beneath an elegant arch. Mr. and Mrs. Little left the churc
