Local Happenings

Chicken raising bids fair to become an important industry in Bear River The reputation of Winchester farm i already firmly established and Mr Hough states that he has more order for young chicks than he can handle In fact, he is now three thousand chicks behind on his orders. The Harris Brothers at Hillside farm are also increasing the size of their flock. Mr. Hatheway is also getting ready to go into the chicken business or an extensive scale.

Enforcement of the laws in regar to automobiles has begun under Chief of Police Gilliatt in this town with an undiscriminating and matter of fact programme, four citizens being arraigned before Town Stipendiary Arnaud on Tuesday for failing to display this year's auto numbers on their cars and each of the four being fined $25 .- Spectator.

Work is progressing very favorably on the erection of the Yarmouth Town and County War Memorial. The base is now practically complete and the bronze figure will be put in place immediately. The grounds surrounding it are being beautifully graded sodded or sown with grass seed, making such a striking change that the premises are barely recognizable, while the handsome granite steps and walk leading to the monument are completing a magnificent finish to the whole affair.-Yarmouth Herald.

Captain James Lintlop, of Halifax, has purchased the Lowe property East Granville Street, and with his wife and family has moved into his new home. We are pleased that the captain, in moving from Halifax, decided to locate in Bridgetown.

Remember the Rummage Sale or Saturday afternoon in the Beckwith store under the auspices of the Women's Institute. Home-made candy will be on sale.

Colored by Nature's Brush

NTOT least of the charms of a Brantford Roof is the knowledge that its colors do not fade—do not lose their original warmth —do not cost a cent for paint or stain. This is because Brantford Asphalt Slates have the natural colors of the slate with which they are faced.

Beautiful — durable—economical—fire-resistant -you should learn all about Brantford Asphalt Slates before you plan a roof.
