of ement. July 22nd, 1882.—Captain Andrews was appointed swimming master at the Wiman Island Baths, which position he filled for four years.

The Captain's class-book contains the autographs of 189 ladies and 99 gentlemen, besides a great number of boys, whom he has taught this useful accomplishment. Captain Andrews' efforts have been rewarded by many testimonials from his pupils at the close of each season, among which is a handsome watch chain presented by some of his scholars.

July 25th 1882.—In company with a young man named McBean, in response to a "distress" signal, Andrews went to the assistance of six young ladies, whose over-crowded boat had shipped so much water that they were in danger of drowning. When Andrews and his companion reached them the water had already reached the thwarts, and was still coming in over the weather side; by constant baling and careful management the ladies were brought safely to shore, though there was a considerable sea on at the time; but with the exception of a thorough drenching, and the necessary confinement at the Wiman Baths while that inconvenience was being remedied, the ladies were nothing the worse, although their position for a time was exceedingly dangerous.

In addition to this gallant act, he rescued many other persons from drowning, many of them ladies, during his four years' connection with the Wiman Baths, for which he received the following testimonial from J. J. Withrow, Esq., President Wiman Bath Trust:
