RUGBY FARM.

J. S. WILLIAMS, Knowlton, P. Q.,

—BREEDER OF—

Shorthorn Cattle and Berkshire Hogs.

Herd headed by the Bates bull Duke of Rugby, and bred with strict reference to individual merit and milking qualities. Animals recorded in both American and B. A. herd books. Berkshires are of the choicest breeding—large size and great individuals. For prices and other information, address above.

Stock Notes.

Prides, Queens and Ericas. The result speaks well of the McCombie herd. As Mr. Auld says the show-ring is not a bad place to illustrate the merits of different breeds, but even here mistakes are liable to be made sometimes. It will be remembered that the champion herd exhibited by Gudgeon & Simpson, of Independence, Mo., a couple of years ago was headed by Black Knight of St. Patrick, a bull bred by Mr. Auld. The bull that headed the successful McCombie herd against Galloways this year was a brother to the same Knight of St. Patrick. The champion cow Princess 6th, of the same herd, is full sister to the champion Mr. G. W. Henry, of Kansas, Mo., exhibited there a successful young herd in 1883, several of the members of which were from Mr. Auld's stock, all going to prove that his herd is in the hand of one who knows how to breed good stock. We may also add that perhaps the highest price ever paid for a Polled female, $3,000, was given at a public sale for a cow owned by Hon. M. H. Cochrane, of Hillhurst, and purchased by him from Mr. Auld in Scotland. The first animal exhibited by Mr. Auld in Scotland, Knight of the Shire, won the coveted McCombie prize at Aberdeen in 1882, and nearly all the more remarkable animals that have appeared from year to year at the National Shows in Scotland have had for dams or sires animals of the same McCombie Pride blood. Mr. Auld assures us that our readers may expect that he will have the last word with Mr. McCrae when the shows are over, as he is not content simply with beating Galloways in the show ring, he wants also to beat Galloway owners.

Ayrshires.

At the October sale of Ayrshires held by D. Nicol & Sons, of Cataraqui Ont., the Messrs. Jardine, of Saltfleet, purchased a young bull and two cows.

Holsteins.

Mr. F. N. Ritchie, of St. Anne la Perade, P. Q., is breeding pure bred Holsteins, commencing last spring. The herd consists of 7 head, imported by Geo. E. Brown, Aurora, Ill. Mars Ellis, an 18 month bull, heads the herd. Mr. Ritchie is also running a de Laval cream separator, and conducts a creamery.

Herefords.

Mr. R. J. Mackie, of Oshawa, has now a splendid herd of Herefords. It numbers over 50 head. The calves and young stock are especially good.

At Uxbridge we had the pleasure of meeting Mr. S. W. Dearborn, of Oshawa, who in the autumn of 1884, invested in Herefords from the herd of Mr. Mackie. Two imported females were bought, one aged, the other four years, and a two-year heifer of Mr. Mackie's Victoria family, with a heifer calf by her side. Two of these have since produced calves by Cecil, and the other by Moreton.

Mr. A. B. Cushing, of Dixville, Que., is breeding Herefords largely. Mr. Cushing purchased, as noted in a former number of the JOURNAL, from Mr. R. J. Mackie and L. G. Drew, both of Oshawa, Ont. In the spring of 1885, 12 females were bought, and the one-year bull Security 17372 A.H.B., bred by the estate of C. C. Brydges, Shanty Bay. His sire is Sergeant 8454, and dam Gwendy 4th 8458. These females had 8 calves by their sides, and have produced 6 head since, so that the herd now numbers 26. Some of these were on exhibition at Sherbrooke.

Guernseys.

Mr. S. A. Fisher, M. P., of Knowlton, Que., exhibited 5 head of Guernsey cattle at Sherbrooke, and carried all the prizes. The bull Cesar heads the herd, by imp. Cesar, and the imp. dam Rosie of Les Vandelets. He is a large bull, and rich in the color of his skin. Mr. Fisher's aim is to get the best dairy breed for butter making. We are told that his grades bred with this object in view are exceptionally good.

Sheep and Pigs.

Mr. Thos. Lamb, Jr., is breeding Shropshire Down sheep, having purchased from John Adams, of Port Perry.

Mr. Joseph Ward, of Marshall, Ont., has now a good flock of Cotswolds, 70 ewes and ewe lambs. The herd of some 12 Shorthorns is doing well.

Mr. Smith Evans, Gourack, near Guelph, Ont., writes that his flock of Oxford Downs is doing remarkably well. Three of the ewes produced 10 lambs last season.

Mr. R. H. Tylee, secretary of the Eastern Townships agricultural exhibition, has commenced breeding Poland China pigs. Those purchased by him from Levi R. Whitman, Knowlton, took first and second prizes at the above exhibition.

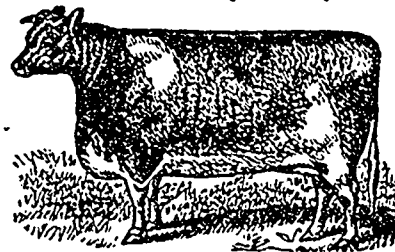

Mr. Patten reports the sale of three Shropshire ewes and a ram to Mr. Meagher, Q.C. of Halifax, N. S. and seven ewes and a ram to Senator Allan, of Painswick, Co. Sumner. Mr. Hutcheson, of Campbellville, has also purchased a shearing ram from the Eastwood flock, and Dr. Patten, of St. George, one of the same age.

Mr. Thos. Hamilton, Chesterville, Ont., has been breeding Southdown sheep for some four years past. The flock is founded on stock purchased from the late D. Perley, Paris; J. Jackson, Abingdon; T. Wilkinson, Renton Station, and R. Marsh, Richmond Hill. Mr. Hamilton's flock is now one of the finest in the section. He also keeps Cotswolds and Berkshires, which originally came from the Willow Lodge, Mr. J. C. Snell's home in Edmonton, Ont.

We are pleased to learn that the stock of Mr. T. G. Nankin, of the Shade Park farm, Merivale, near Ottawa, is doing well, and that it has made a good record at the recent fairs. At the Provincial and Industrial exhibitions at first, 4 second and 4
