Extension Ladder

Everyone recommends them. The farmer's pride is the fireman's joy. Painters, carpenters, plumbers, roofers and contractors use them. The simplest fire escape made. Farmers say the best apple picker made. Every person owning a building should have one—the law should say they have one. The accompanying cut shows the position of the ladder when in use, and gives a better idea of its many advantages than a long description. Ours is the simplest, the best made, and consequently the cheapest. Hundreds in use by all classes. Call or write for particulars and prices.
