The summer months having no minutes of meetings to record, afford a welcome opportunity for publishing many letters hitherto unavoidably omitted. We heartily regret that this should so frequently occur through lack of space, this number will therefore be devoted to several of these deferred letters.

DORCAS SECRETARY'S REPORT.

Grace Church—One bale Dynevor Hospital, 51 new articles; including 6 quilts, and unmade material, 41 second-hand, 2 rolls colored pictures. St. John the Evangelist—One bale Gordon Schools, 48 new boys garments, 5 second hand. Trinity Church—One bale St. Peter's Mission, Lesser Slave lake, 53 new garments, 4 second-hand. Absence from the city precluded the Diocesan President from attending the closing meeting of the Grace Church Branch, held the 14th of June; the Dorcas Secretary was present, and witnessed the packing of the large bale for Dynevor Hospital, which contained, in addition to much valuable clothing, 6 quilts and 1 pair blankets. At the close of the meeting, before adjourning to a substantial tea, the members of the Branch presented their President, Mrs. Ker, with a beautifully made quilt, as a mark of their respect and affection.

DYNEVOR INDIAN HOSPITAL.

MY DEAR YOUNG FRIENDS—Our kind friend, Miss McCord, has sent all the pretty things you have made and collected for our hospital; we all thank you much for them, and the ladies who have given so much time to your work. The quilt I keep for myself, for it is not only very pretty and well made, but it will remind me of the kind little girls whose busy fingers must have worked so hard. And now you will like to know what we did with all the pretty things. I can only tell you of a few, as my letter would be too long and you would be going to sleep over it. Some of you have seen Indians, but I suppose none have ever lived on an Indian Reserve, where you see none but Indians. Of course there are a great many boys and girls
