have much pleasure in announcing to their patrons that they have made arrangements to present a magnificent horse picture to their advance paying subscribers for the year 1876-7. Realizing the importance of this undertaking, and being determined to offer our subscribers a picture that should in itself be worthy of the paper it represents, and which should be treasured as a work of The Hal Man for English and American Royelties and Staples of the American press, we selected the beautiful chrome of Goldskirth Made, printed in nine colors and binner able shades, size 18] art; after culling over the finest productions by 24 inches, believing, as our friends will when they see it, tlat it is the finest horse picture over published in America. It is not to be confounded with the miserable pictures hawked around the country by some jour-nals, but is really a work of high art and in-trinsically of more value than we re-ceive for our yearly subscription. She is re-presented standing in a box stall stripped, and in this position the picture, from which the chrome is reproduced, was painted by the chrome is reproduced, was painted by one of the first artists in the profession in America. When varnished and mounted it is impossible to distinguish between the chrome and a yery-fine oil painting. It is a work of art withy of a place in the finest collections in the country, and what adds to its value it is the only correct likeness of Golesmir Main ever published. As a memento of the most remarkable frotting equine in the world, shortly to be relegated from the turf, it will be treasured by every hoseman in the country, more especially by those who have seen the little mare in any of her reces. This picture was sold by subscription only a This picture was sold by subscription only a few months ago for $5 a piece; and copies of it were in great demand. Wolczpect in this liberal gift to more than double our subscription list in the next three months, and if our friends who receive the picture will only show it to their acquaintances and inform them how they may get a copy, we are sure our anticipations will be realized. The picture can be procured in no other way; we do not sell it; and only give it to those who, remit Yearly in advance for the Sporting Times.

Per line, first insertion,

To meet the wishes of a number of our patrons who might desire the picture of a horse in action in preference to a still one like our Cheomo of Goldsmith Maid, as a premium, we have selected the next most remarkable trotting celebrity in the world in her greatest race. We refer to Lula at Rochester, N. Y., October 14th, 1875, in her now noted match against Time. The picture is 22½ by 28 inches, being larger tham that of The Maid, and is a fine specimen of the pictorial art. It is not claimed to possess the nigh artistic value of the latter, but still the new new property of being larger and in action the nigh artistic value of the latter, but still on account of being larger and in action, with a portrait of Mr. Chas. Green, the driver of Lula, and a view of the Rochester, N. Y., Driving Park, Judges' Stand, &c., the stables, &c., being seen in the distance, might be preferred by many to the other. We desire to accommod. a our patrons to the first-class Indirancy.
