

Speak Gently.

Speak gently, it is better far
To rule by love, than fear
Speak gently, let no harsh words pass
The good we might do here

FOR THE CANADIAN MUTE

The Cold Snap while at School.

BY WILLIAM KAY, OIL SPRINGS,
(An Old Pupil)

It is to be remembered that one year ago now I wrote an article concerning what happened at your school during the first cold snap, on account of the unexpected useless condition of the heating apparatus.

teachers. In fact Mr. Greene said quite indignantly that every morning he woke up, he found his mouth thick with icicles, and Mr. Coleman said gravely that he had to put on three pairs of socks and wondered if he was sent into Canada to be frozen.

I do not remember of any Sunday service except one, which was held in the housekeeper's old chamber, just opposite the matron's. All the pupils seated facing the south and Mr. Coleman conducted the service.

Some men are strong,
And it is powerful
Some men are wise,
And it is civilised

Mr. Greene made his first appearance on that Sunday, after having been confined to his room for several days with an attack of rheumatism in his back.

The heating apparatus started well in the girls' wing first, and so for several evenings the boys assembled in the west school room to study their lessons. At one time Mr. Coleman had to come in to stop the awful noises, one of his own pupils, the riotous boy Robert Sutton, was making.

"I'll Be a Gentleman."

Remember that you are polite to others, not because they are gentlemen but because you are one. The true gentleman is a gentle man everywhere.

He is such a contrast to most of the young men and has such easy and engaging manners, that I feel sure he must have had a good mother.

After all, saying "I'll be a gentleman" is only another way of saying "I'll be a man. To be honest, kind, obliging, thoughtful of others and unselfish, and what is all this but being a man in the fullest meaning of the word?"

The world has lots of room for an honest, unselfish man. No matter how humble his work, neighbors will respect him and there will be many people who will love him for his integrity and good heart.

They are few enough and poverty is no bar to prevent one from being a gentleman and a man. A kind heart and an unselfish nature may hide under the poorest rags.

The Nelson Miner says "When a man is abused by everybody all around it is more than probable that he has some very good points, points which pierce the vulnerable part of his abusers. This is particularly so of a man holding any public office."

Sayings of Archbishop Whately

It is a folly to slaver for last year's snow
Some things should be learned a little at each end.
The generality of mankind are as good and wise as the generality.

For Calcutta Deaf and Dumb School. AN APPEAL

To the Friends of the Deaf in Canada as well as the Teachers and Pupils in the Deaf Schools in Montreal, Halifax and St. John's.

All the deaf mutes and friends interested in a deaf-mute education the world over are requested to respond to the appeal so as to assure the permanency of the school before the financial government can grant the aid needed.

The Calcutta Deaf School has been maintained for three years. It requires funds for its maintenance for a suitable house of its own, and for the gratuitous education of destitute deaf mute children.
