REPRINTS

British Periodicals.

The political ferment among the European nations, the strife between Church and State, the discussion of Science in its relation to Theology, and the latest in publication of new works on these and kindred topics, will give unusual interest to the leading foreign Reviews. During 1875, nowhere else can the inquiring reader find in a condensed form, the facts and arguments necessary to guide him to a correct conclusion.

THE Leonard Scott Publishing Co., BARCLAY ST., New York, continue the reprint of the four leading P. views viz—

EDINBURGH REVIEW, (Whigs) LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, WESTMINSTER REVIEW, (Liberal) BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEW, (Non-Religious) AND BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

A REPRESENTATIVE & CHAMPION OF AMERICAN TASTE! Prospectus for 1875—Eighteenth Year.

THE ALDINE, THE ART JOURNAL of America. ISSUED MONTHLY.

"A Magnificent Conception Wonderfully carried out."

The necessity of a popular medium for the representation of the productions of our great artists has always been recognized, and many attempts have been made to meet the want. The successive failures which so invariably followed each attempt in this country to establish an art journal, did not move the indifference of the people of America to the claims of high art. So soon as a proper appreciation of the want and an ability to meet it were shown, the public at once rallied with enthusiasm to its support, and the result was a great artistic and commercial triumph—THE ALDINE.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it is bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals in similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume can not duplicate the quantity of any other in any other line, and at the same time number of volumes for ten times its cost, and then, there is the chromo; besides!

The national feature of THE ALDINE must be taken in no common sense. "American Art," while THE ALDINE is a strictly American institution, it does not confine itself entirely to the reproduction of native art. Its mission is to cultivate a broad and appreciative taste, one that will discriminate between the good and the bad. Thus, while placing before the patrons of THE ALDINE, as a leading characteristic, the productions of the most noted American artists, attention will also be given to special foreign masters, giving subscribers all the pleasure and instruction obtainable from home or foreign sources. The artistic illustration of American scenery, original with THE ALDINE, is an important feature, and its magnificent plates are a more appropriate to the satisfactory treatment of details than can be afforded by any inferior page. The judicious interposition of landscape, marine, figure, and animal subjects, sustain an unbroken interest, impossible where the scope of the work confines the artist too closely to a single style of subject. The literature of THE ALDINE is a light and agreeable accompaniment to the artistic features, with only such technical discussions as do not interfere with the popular interest of the work.

PREMIUM FOR 1875. Every subscriber for 1875 will receive a beautiful portrait, in oil colors, of the same noble dog whose picture in a former issue attracted so much attention.

MAN'S UNSELFISH FRIEND will be welcome in every home. Everybody loves a dog, and the picture is so true to life, that it seems the veritable presence of the animal itself. The Rev. T. De Witt Talmage tells that his own Newfoundland dog (the finest in Brooklyn) barked at it. Although so natural, no one who sees this premium chromo will have the slightest fear of being bitten. Besides the chromo, every advance subscriber to THE ALDINE for 1875 is constituted a member, and entitled to all the privileges of

THE ALDINE ART UNION. The Union owns the originals of all THE ALDINE pictures, which, with other paintings and engravings, are to be distributed among the members. Every series of 5000 subscribers, 100 different pieces, valued at over $2500 are distributed as soon as the series is full, and the awards of each series as made, are to be published in the next succeeding issue of THE ALDINE. This feature only applies to subscribers who pay for one year in advance. Full particulars in circular sent on application enclosing a stamp.

TERMS. One Subscription, entitling to THE ALDINE one year, the Chromo and the Art Union, $5.00 PER ANNUM IN ADVANCE. (No charge for postage.) Specimen Copies of THE ALDINE, 30 Cents.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or "sample" rates for single copies. The publishers direct, or through to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the fac-simile signature of James Sutton, President.

CANVASSERS WANTED. An extra wishing to set permanently as a local canvasser, will receive full and prompt information by applying to

"THE LIBERAL,"

TORONTO.

MESSRS JOHN CAMERON & CO. PROPRIETORS OF THE "LONDON ADVERTISER," having determined to extend their publications to Toronto, the capital and centre of the Province, arrangements are now nearly completed for the carrying out of the project. It was at first their intention to carry the name which had served them so well in London to Toronto, issuing a Daily under the name of the "LONDON ADVERTISER," and a preliminary prospectus was issued to that effect. Legal difficulties, however, having been thrown in the way of their using the name, (by the publisher of a Journal, issued in this City, bearing a somewhat similar title), Messrs John Cameron & Co. have decided rather than enter into litigation over a disputed point of law, to adopt the name of—

THE LIBERAL, TORONTO.

Their publications will then consist of the following journals: THE LIBERAL, published daily at Toronto; THE DAILY ADVERTISER, published at London; THE WEEKLY LIBERAL and WESTERN ADVERTISER, issued at Toronto and London.

THE LIBERAL will commence its career as a 32-column journal, well printed on good paper, and will be enlarged as rapidly as advertising space makes additional demands on our space. The Parliamentary Reports will be well condensed and thoroughly impartial. To that end the services of able and experienced stenographers have been secured. The publishers believe the public will appreciate a Journal edited in a pithy and readable style, and which will aim at quality rather than quantity. The editorial corps includes several of the ablest journalists in Canada, and the public may expect THE LIBERAL to take an immediate position in the front rank of Canadian journals.

The first issue of THE LIBERAL will make its appearance about the 20th of January.

It is the expectation of the publishers of the "LONDON DAILY ADVERTISER," with the additional news facilities which will be at their disposal, to materialize papers of the kind at informed journals in the Province, outside of Toronto.

The circulation of our eight-page weekly, now over 14,000 copies, will present to the business men of Toronto, London and Ontario generally, the most widely-spread medium of communication—with one exception—in the Province, and it is believed that within a limited period from this date the circulation of the paper will be at least 20,000 copies. It will be the aim of the publishers to make it the best weekly in Canada. They have secured in announcing, as one of its features for 1875, a first-class American and British editorial Department, specially edited for THE WEEKLY LIBERAL and WESTERN ADVERTISER, by Mr. W. F. CLARK, for some years editor of the Canada Farmer.

Politically the publishers have no new departure to announce. While maintaining their attitude as outspoken and independent journalists, they will, in the future as in the past, be staunchly and progressively Liberal in their views and utterances, and continue to extend cordial support to the Administrations respectively of Mr. Mackenzie and Mr. Mowat.

THE LIBERAL will be issued daily from the office, 67 Yonge street, east side, second door south of King street. Subscription price 10 cents per week, or $5.00 per year prepaid. Single copies 2 cents. The subscription price of THE WEEKLY LIBERAL and WESTERN ADVERTISER is $1.50 per annum, payable strictly in advance.

JOHN CAMERON & CO. Toronto, December 22, 1874.

"EVERY SATURDAY"

MERGED INTO Titell's Living Age.

THE LIVING AGE has been published for more than thirty years, with the warmest support of the best men of the country. It has admittedly continued to stand "at the head of the parade," and its success is now greater than ever before. It has absorbed its younger competitor, "EVERY SATURDAY," and is without a rival in its special field. It is a weekly magazine, sixty-four pages, THE LIVING AGE gives more than THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND double column octavo pages of reading-matter yearly, forming four large volumes. It represents an expensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with illustrations, owing to its wide circulation with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Tales, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.

During the coming year, the serial and short stories of the LEADING FOREIGN AUTHORS will be given, together with an amount unparalleled by any other periodical in the world, of the best literary and scientific matter of the day, from the pen of the best authors, and many other, foremost living Essayists, Scientists, Critics, Discoverers and Editors, representing in every department of knowledge and progress.

The importance of THE LIVING AGE to every American reader, as the only thoroughly fresh and COMPLETE compilation of an indispensable current of literature,—indispensable because it embraces the productions of

THE ABLEST LIVING WRITERS in all branches of Literature, Science, Art and Politics,—is sufficiently indicated by the following recent OPINIONS.

"Reproduces the best thoughts of the best minds of the civilized world, upon all topics of living interest."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"In no other single publication can there be found so much of sterling literary excellence."—N.Y. Evening Post.

"The best of all our eclectic publications."—The Nation, New York.

"And the cheapest. A monthly that comes every week."—The Advance, Chicago.

"The ablest essays, the most entertaining stories, the finest poetry of the English language, are here gathered together."—Ill. State Journal.

"With it alone a reader may keep up with all that is important in the literature, history, politics, and science of the day."—The Methodist, N. Y. City.

"The best periodical in America."—Der. Dr. Cuyler.

"The best periodical in the world."—Alfred B. Street.

"It has no equal in any country."—Philadelphia Press.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY at $3.00 a year, free of postage. Volume begins January 2. New subscribers remitting now will receive the intervening numbers gratis.
