General Parish News.

We are glad to welcome among us Mr. E. C. Dean, who has been engaged on the staff of THE BEACON. Mr. Dean has already joined our choir, is a member of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew and generally a good worker in the church.

On Tuesday, Jan. 30th, the choir was hospitably entertained by Mr. W. C. Young, the Choir Master.

The music throughout January has been exceptionally good in all our services. We are only voicing the sentiment of the congregation in expressing both to Mr. Young and the choir our appreciation of their labor of love.

A very pleasant surprise awaited the Rector and the District Visitors in the offertory on Tuesday, Jan. 28th. It was an anonymous donation of $10.00 to the Poor Fund. Here was a truly Christian spirit.

The Sunday School still continues to make, on the whole, satisfactory progress. The attendance has been very good—always above 270, once 291. But as yet we have not reached the 300.

Mr. Yorick has kindly consented to train the children in appropriate Hymns and Chants for Easter Day, when their next quarterly service will be held. The practices will be on Wednesdays, in the Chapel, from 4:30 to 5:40 p.m., and on Sundays at 2:30 p.m., before Sunday School.

We are glad to announce the accession of Mr. Wilkins, of Albert St. to the staff of the Sunday school. May he be blessed in his work, and may many others follow his example. We still want four MEN in the Sunday school, before our school can be considered well-equipped with teachers.

After the very disastrous month of December, we are glad to report much less sickness throughout the parish for the month of January.

The anniversary of the establishment of our local circle of King's Daughters will be held on Feb. 22, when Mrs. Tilley, of London, Dominion Secretary of the Order, will be present to address them and the public upon matters connected with their work. We hope our congregation will show their appreciation of the admirable and unselfish efforts of our own circle by coming in large numbers to this anniversary.
