

Poetry.

"Oh who shall dare, in this frail scene,
On holiest, happiest thoughts to lean,
On friendship, kindred, or on love."

Is it then so? Can even love,—
The foresto sweet of heaven, deriving birth
From thoughts, and hopes, and ties above the earth,—
Can it, too, faithless prove?

Kindred we know, may cease to own
The claims of brotherhood; in anguish wild
The mother may "forget her sucking child;"
Fathers their sons disown.

So, too, may friendship's silken tie,
By time or absence silently untwin'd;
Or, rent by force, to brother souls unbind,
To stand apart for aye.

But O! can thus the golden chain
That binds two hearts in one, be lightly broken?
Can vows on bended knee before God spoken,
Their witness plead in vain?

"It needs must be" that all should learn,
Though writ the lesson in tears of blood,—
Cease ye from man, and trust alone in God,
No ne'er shall change or turn.

"It needs must be, though woo to him
By whom the offer is" that teacheth it shall come;
But all things speak it,—some in precept, some
In type, nor falso nor dim.

The loveliest flower that blooms to-day,
Shedding its fragrance through the balmy air,
Just shows its form, so delicate and fair,
Then quickly fades away.

The summer morn that early glows,
And seems as though 'twould last for ever bright,
Sparkles a few short hours, then, lost in night,
Sinks into calm repose.

The very tenure of our life,
How frail! it passeth as the morning dew,—
That dew, how transient! as the glimpse of blue
In the dark heavens, with strife.

Yea, come that last tremendous day,
And earth, on strong foundations surely laid,
With fervent heat will be dissolv'd, and fade
With all its bright array.

There is but One unchangeable,—
One only true, on whose enduring name
We safely rest, and find him ay the same,—
Our sheltering citadel!

In conflicts sore, or weariness,
An everlasting object for our love,
Though earth's dear friendships fail us, and we prove
Its powerlessness to bless.

From things of earth our spirits wean,
Thou who canst order our murmur will,
And with Thyself our restless cravings fill,—
Teach us on Thee to lean.

What though the hopes of earth should fade,—
Since Thou canst never fail, nor change, O Lord!
On Thee, Eternal, and Thy faithful Word,
Our sinking hearts be stayed!

WHY ARE WE SICK?

IT has been the lot of the human race to be weighed down by disease and suffering. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS are specially adapted to the relief of the WEAK, the NERVOUS, the DELICATE, and the INFIRM, of all climates, ages, sexes, and constitutions. THESE PILLS PURIFY THE BLOOD.

These famous Pills are expressly combined to operate on the stomach, the liver, the kidneys, the lungs, the skin, and the bowels, correcting any derangement in their functions, purifying the blood, the very fountain of life, and thus curing disease in all its forms.

Nearly half the human race have taken these Pills. It has been proved in all parts of the world, that nothing has been found equal to them in cases of disorders of the liver, dyspepsia, and stomach complaints generally. They soon give a healthier tone to those organs, how ever much deranged, and when all other means have failed.

GENERAL DEBILITY.—ILL HEALTH.

Many of the most despotic Governments have opened their Custom Houses to the introduction of these Pills, that they may become the medicine of the masses. Learned Colleges admit that this medicine is the best remedy ever known for persons of delicate health, or where the system has been impaired, as its invigorating properties never fail to afford relief.

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

No Female, young or old, should be without this celebrated medicine. It corrects and regulates the monthly courses at all periods, acting in many cases like a charm. It is also the best and safest medicine that can be given to children of all ages, and for any complaint; and consequently no family should be without it. Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following Diseases:
