

The British Record of Obstetric Medicine, Surgery, &c., edited by Charles Clay, M.D., Manchester. We regret to find that this Journal is discontinued, as it was one eminently deserving of extensive patronage. The numbers received constitute Vol. 2.

The Encyclopædia Obstetrica, by Charles Clay, M.D., Manchester. Letter A.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Dr. Couillard, St. Marie.—The missing numbers have been sent and the Journal continued.

Dr. Rankin, Vaughan.—The matter will be enquired into, and an answer sent.

Dr. Seagram, Galt.—Request complied with.

Dr. Smythe, Brockville.—Much obliged for good wishes; his hint has been communicated in the proper quarter—Dr. S. will understand.

Dr. Sewell, Lennoxville.

Dr. Reynolds, Brockville.—We assure Dr. R. that that paper left our possession at the time indicated. It is not among any of our papers, for we have repeatedly searched, as the matter at the time caused us great annoyance. The paper on "Variola" never came to hand.

A parcel has been received from R. & S. S. Wood, New York, enclosing catalogues. These are subject to letter postage by weight, and are not mailable except at heavy expense, Messrs. Wood's plan for the future is to post the catalogue to each party direct. We have succeeded in distributing them as wished.

Subscribers in arrears are requested to remit the amounts severally due, to Mr. Becket, Great St. James Street, as early as possible; and, as it has become an object of moment to save the 20 per cent. hitherto paid to collectors, our subscribers are particularly requested to remit per post. There is no agent at present authorized to collect for the Journal.
