

tated himself, then touched it and passed quickly out." How thankful we ought to be, that we are not brought up in such fearful delusions, and that the only serpent we need to dread, is Satan, whose "head has been bruised by the heel" of the Saviour. Seek dear children, an interest in that Saviour, and then you need not fear Satan, that old serpents, mighty power, to destroy or hurt your soul.

THE SERPENT GODS OF INDIA.

Living in the light, do what you can to spread the knowledge of the truth to the children of India.