Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a com-mon weed growing on the pastures, and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There are no ifs nor ands, hums nor ha's about it suiting some cases but not nor ands, hums nor ha's about it suiting some cases but not yours. Some who have taken it have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy i but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings, but you must not be alarmed; they always disappear from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the con-trary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomi-ums of it that ever man listened to.
