Romanism and Disgert.

Da. Charbonnell has issued a posteral to his flock enjoining "Christian Forbearance."

When individuals are called on to receive that Christian virtue, we must naturally suppose that the paties thus addressed are suffering under persecution or injury. The Montreal nots have apparently called this forth, and thus evoked, and bering in mind as we do, that in those riots a wanton aggression was made on Protestant rights by ignorant and intolerant Roman Catholics, we do think that the tone might be different. But it seems the blood of fifty or sixy Protestant was a set oif against certaix indignities offered to Dr. Charbonnell, which we now hear of for the first time.

Thus he writes.

_Thus he writes.-We ourselves have met with some trials in this city and diorese. Thank God, in our own native land, in its worst days, we had been prepared for the struggle, by worst days, we had been prepared for the struggle, by insults of every kind, even by stones, strokes and slaps; more than ouce the sight of our soutane, which we never put off (with our Bishop's advice) made mad many victims of an Infidel University. Therefore how could be be astonished at our being laughed at and called names almost every day in this country, where we cannot neither for dignities, nor for maney, nor for any came, neither for dignities, nor for money, nor for any eame, nerture to organize, nor for money, nor for any human enjoyment; but exclusively to please God, to serve his Church, and to help the souls? How could we be asto-nished at our having been based at in a public place where nished at our naving oven nissed at in a public place where we went by couriesy t—at our having received shavings thrown to our back?—at having been called 'jackass' by students in their full dress, 'devit' by many others, and often sent with bian to held? Soers, curses railleries, and m micries are not beiter proofs than lies and c lumi ies of one tenny in the cight; but unquestionably they proceed neither from extended information, nor from charitable and neither from extended information, nor from charitable and heavenly inspirations. Yet must we add, for our comfort that the proceedings of a great many Protestants towards us, have made and continually make ample compensation for the mentioned vulgarities. Ignorance, prejudices and intemperance alone can be accountable for such facts; and the all-seeing field knows whether we pitted, excused, and blessed their authors, repeating, with our Divine Master; — Faller forgier them, for they know not what they do." With every respect for Dr. Charbonnell's motives, we must question his judgment in now bringing them forward. He must know as well as we do, that the greater the ienorance the greater the inforence, in dithat these commodities exist largely among his flock. The intelligent and the liberal on both sides repudiate them, and the doctor would have done better to have refrained from raking up the ashes of the past as he has done.

of the past as he has done.
Whist we censure the Reverend Dictor for this part of his pastoral, we give him his due meed of praise for the following, who h may prove a safeguard to some of his flock:

"Wherefire, Rev. dear Sir, 1st; You will be pleased to where we, kev, dear sit, 1st; fou with the pheased to read and comment on this letter in all your Churches before the 12th July, recommending to all our Catholies, and those of railroals particularly, for that day, and all such occasions temperance, work, Christian forbearance, and no interference at all with what is not their business; teminding them of the produces of Dr. Cahill, and of his influence on his countrymen in England with regard to processions and similar inflammable manifestations, and of the admirable conduct of the Catholics of Toronto on the 12th of July last year, and on the recent days previous to the two unfortunate occurrences of Quebec and Montreal.

2nd: Were any Catholic of our Diocese to forget those principals of true Christianity, and cause any disturbance on the occasion of the 12th of July he shall be depribance on the occasion of the Land of July as such of prived of receiving the Holy Communion for a length of time, according to the degree of the scandal; and it he dies a victim of his diobedience to this present ordinance, his corpos shall be deprived of the ecclesiastical burial."

Had his fellow Ecclesiastics in Montreal preached such forbearance, then we should not have had the late modern dragonade which has disgraced the Roman Catholic freatureof Montie I where Romanism is rampant. Here its effect can be beneficial only to the members of his own dock, for if such aggression were attempted by them we are well able to protect ourselves. We rejoice, however, at its appearance, as thereby we know that our Ro nar Catholic feliow citizens may be the more caleful to avon any interference with us, or resort to anything thereby disturb that harmony which has hitherto subsisted, and we trust long may, between the Roman Catholics and Protestants in this city — British Canadian.

DELSENTATION OF A SILVER COMMUNION SERVICE TO ST. MARY'S CHURCH, TULLAMORE.

(To the Editor of "The Church.")
REVEREND AND DEAR SIR,—I have much pleasure in informing your readers that St. Mary's Church, Tullamore, has been enriched during the last week by a very handsome Communion Service, worth about £40,—the gift of a widow lady in England.

A vestry meeting was convened on Monday last, the 13th inst. at 10 a.m., for the purpose of receiving this costly present, when there was an unusually large attendance, and the following Resolutions were supported with great warmth and ability:—
1. Moved by Mr. II. Cristopherson, seconded by

Mr. George Balfour, Resolved, -- That the Clergyman, Churchwardens, don (England), their warmest thanks for the very received through the hands of John Corkitt, Esq.,— Chiefs we the donor's respected nephew, and their faithful Porte, for friend and fellow-churchman.

2. Move'l by Mr. J. M. Chaffe, seconded by Mr.

High Mans (churchwarden), Resolvel,—finat the thanks of this vestry are due to John Corkilt, Esq., for his kindness in having re-presented our wants to his aunt, while in England; for his liberality in paying out of his own pocket, the custom-house duty on her present; as well as for the great interest which he has taken from the very commencement, in aiding his zealous neighbours in this locality, in the erection of St. Mary's

3. Moved by Mr. Read Wright, seconded by Mr.

Shaw (churchwarden).

Resolved,—That the Rev. J. Gilbert Armstrong, as the Clergyman of St. Mary's Church, and chairman of this vestive be most respectfully requested to have the proceedings of this meeting inserted in the Church newspaper, and any other Provincial journals which will favour us by copying; and also address a letter to Mrs. Carter on behalf of said vestry, conveying to her the substance of these Resolution

As a proof of the good effect of Mrs. Carter's pious donation on the members of St. Mary's Church and others present at this meeting, a subscription list was opened on the spot and largely signed, for the purpose of making improvements in the Church and surrounding grounds. It should be also stated, in justice to the Congregation of this Church, that they have within the last year purchased a very handsome Font and Melodian, and seem desirous to do every thing—to the utmost of their ability—to promote the service of God, and the temporal and eternal happiness of their fellows.

Rev. and Dear Sir. yours faithfully. J. GILBERT ARMSTRONG. Berwick, Vaughan, 2

HORRIBLE. - The 'Montreal Transcript' states that & man and his wife, named Quntal, were apprehended at St. Hyacinthe last Thursday, charged with the inhuman attempt to burn their daughter, a child about seven years old. They tied the poor girl to a fence on one of the roads in that vicinity, and then set fire to her clothes. Fortunately their diabolical efforts were greatly frustrated by the appearance of some habitana; and the wretches, as soon as they were perceived, endeavoured to conceal themselves and had result searond. The child although severe selves and had nearly escaped. The child although severely burnt, is yet expected to survive this parental cruelty. The parents are mendicants, and it is believed the horrible crime was committed while under the influence of intoxicating liquors .- Toronto Patriot. The Industrial Exhibition at Quebec on the 31st ult. opened most propitiously. The display of articles was very respectable, and a feeling of satisfaction as well as surprise was experienced at the appearance of the Exhibition as a whole.—The carriages, the cabinet work in black watout, and a silver chalice, would favourably compare with European works of art. The amount taken for admission tickets on the first day reached £40. The Chronicle says the appearance of the room on the second day was much ruproved by the many additions, in almost every department which had been made to the show.

The Humbolit arrived at her dock this evening with London dates to the 3th inst. She brings 125 passengers, among them W. C. Bryant of the New York evening post; Mr. Browne, late U. S. Consul at Rome. It is rumoured that the split in the English Cabinet between Lord J. Russel and the Irish members of the Cabinet holding Russel and the frish members of the Cabinet holding office had been heated up, explanations having taken place between these three Gentlemen—Measirs. Russell, N. E. Ogle and Sadlier, who had resigned the offices they had filled, and the Earl of Aberdeen had withdrawn his resignation. The weather was very favourable for the growing crops when the Hunbillt left Commodore Vanderbelt's steam yacht North Star, was attracting great attention at Southampton.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. For the Cure of Cought, Colle. Horseness, Branchitis, Whooping- Cough, Croup, Asthma, and Consumption. For the Cure of Cought, Code, Horscursa, Branchille, Whopping, Cough, Croop, Asthma, and Consumption. In offering to the community this justly celebrated remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs, it is not our wish to tribe with the lives or health of the afflicted, but frankly to lay before them the opinions of distinguish of men and some of the ardiences of its success from which they can judge for themselves. We succeepy pludge surselves to make no wild ansardians or false statements of its efficacy, nor will we hold out any hope to sudering huminity which facts will not servant.

Many proofs are here well, and we solicit an inquisy from the public line at we publish, ferling assured they will find them perfectly reliable, and the medicine northy their heat confidence and pattonage.

From the distinguished Professor of Chemistry and Materia Medica, Botodwin College.

Dass fits if delayed answering the tremps of your paratice, until I had an epoperturity of witnessing its ifects in my own smally, or in the families of my friends.

This I have new done with a high degree of antifaction, in cases of both adults and children.

I have found by as its luggedients show, a powefur remody for colds, and coughs, and pulmonary diseases.

Dr. J. C. Ayer, — Bir 1 have been affilicted with a pain ful affection of the longr, and all the symptoms of settled consumption, for more than a year. I could find no medicine that would reach my case, mill I commenced the use of your "Chansy Pacrenas," which gave me gradual relief, and I have been, steadily gaining my strength till my health is well nigh restored.

While using your medicine, I had the gralification of curing with it my reversed friend, Mr. Truman, of Sumpter District, who had been suspended from his parochial detice by a severe attack of bronchitis.

I have the pleasure in certifying these facts to you, And am, sir, yours respectfully.

Creavan, Fa., Aug. 27, 1845.

J. C. Ayer,—Bir: I was taken with a terrible cough brought on by a cold, in the beginning of last February and was confined to my bed more than two meeths.

Coughing incassantly night and day, I became ghestly and pale, my open were sunken and glassy, and my breath very short. Indeed, I was rapidly falling, and in such distress for breath, that but little hope of my recovery could be entertained. While in this situation, a friend of mine, (title Rev. John Leiter, of the Methodist church) brought me a bottle of your Carany Pacronat, which I tried more to gratify him, than from any expectation or olotaning refle.

Its good effect induced me to continue its use, and I soon found my health much improved. Now in three months'
I am well and strong, and can attribute my cure only to your great medicine.

With the deepest gretisate, yours. C.

MR. CHARLES RHAN. SURCHON DENTIST,

BEGS to acquaint his numerous friends, and the public generally, that he has just returned from New York, where he has been spending some time with Professor John Allen, of the Cullege of Dental Surgeons, Cincinnati, from whom he has been acquiring a knowledge of the late great improvement in Dentistry, viz: that of uniting single teeth to each other and to the of miting sincle treth to each other and to the plate upon which they are set, by means of a touble shictors certaint, which is flowed in and around the bare of the teeth upon the plate in such a manner, as to form a continuous artificial gum. By this method the cavities between the teeth, which are unavaidable in the old style, are completely hiled up leaving no chance for secretions of any kind, and giving a perfectly natural and life-like appearance to the sum and teeth.

Specimens may be seen at his Office, on the corner of Ray and Melanda hiteets. Office Hours from 9 a. m. to 0 p. m.

Torms-Inch -without exception. This important improvement has been patente by Dr. Allei, in the United States, and steps have been taken to procure Patents in England und France. Dr. A. has authorised Mr. Rhan to give instructions in this bountful art to educated gen-Instruction in this isotherate rems.

N.B.—Mr. R. offers a friently challenge to all the Dentists of British North America to compete with him at the approaching Provincial Exhibition for a Gold Medal, value £12 10s, to be left to the judgment of the Professors of Totonto University, and of Trinity College.
